Service on the Social Protection Board

The Ministry of Social Development is currently seeking to fill a vacancy on the Social Protection Board. This five-member Board works closely with the Commissioner of Social Development in the Department of Social Development reviewing applications for Public Assistance. In accordance with the Social Protection Act 2015, the Board is established to grant benefits to eligible persons, impose any conditions on the granting of benefits, and revoke or reassess grants if warranted.

The Social Protection Board generally meets once per month. Board members receive a stipend of EC$500 per month and serve a three-year term. The Ministry is seeking persons with qualifications and expertise in Health or Labour/Human Resources. Qualified persons are asked to submit a letter of interest and a resume to the Honourable Minister of Social Development, Ms. Dee-Ann Kentish-Rogers at dee-ann.kentish-rogers@gov.ai by 27th July 2020.
