

Applications are invited from suitably qualified persons to fill several posts for namely for Lecturer of Structure of the Construction Industry and Health, Safety & Welfare in Construction of the Division of Technology respectively at Anguilla Community College (ACC).

Key Functions:
1. To participate in the planning, promoting, organizing, and developing the operations of the respective division as guided by the Director of that division and in accordance with the ACC's strategic vision, mission, objectives and the needs of the Anguillan community in particular and of ACC students in general.
2. To plan, organize and deliver the approved curriculum, in accordance with the course outlines and syllabi for the subjects assigned.
3. To monitor, assess, test, measure and determine student understanding of and competence in the subject matter of a course, student performance therein and performance in general.
Lecturer of Health, Safety & Welfare in Construction	Lecturer of Construction
1. To plan, prepare and deliver lectures, demonstrations, tutorials, instruction and training programmes within the guidelines as subscribed for the BTEC programme to students, specifically in the course: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. BTEC Construction Level 2: Exploring, Health, Safety, & Welfare in Construction Unit 	2. To plan, prepare and deliver lectures, demonstrations, tutorials, instruction and training programmes within the guidelines as subscribed for the BTEC programme to students, specifically in the course: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. BTEC Construction Level 2: Structure of the Construction Industry Unit
The incumbent should be highly proficient, experienced and knowledgeable in the field of construction and or a related field. Should have relevant certifications and qualifications in construction management, construction studies or a related field.
Provide academic advice and guidance to students of ACC. Be willing to assist in BTEC assessment procedures and serve as internal verifier of other BTEC construction courses.
Further information about the position and programme can be found on the Anguilla Community College's website.

Deadline date for Applicants 27th November 2019
Please send your letter of application with resumé and certified certificates to:
Dr. Karl Dawson
President/ Dean
The Rogers Office Building, Edwin Wallace Rey Drive, George Hill, AI-2640, Anguilla
Office Hours 8:30am to 4:30pm Monday to Friday
☎ (264) 498-8395/497-2538
Email: karl.dawson@acc.edu.ai