BECOME A PROTOCOL OFFICER UNDER THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE!

The Ministry of Finance is seeking poised, detail-oriented individuals—male and female—to serve as Protocol Officers. Protocol Officers serve as the face of our official engagements with local, regional and international diplomats.

WHY THE ROLE MATTERS?

Protocol Officers are the backbone of Anguilla's diplomatic and ceremonial operations. They ensure that every official event and interaction, as well as every diplomatic visit, reflects the dignity and excellence of Anguilla.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist with the coordination of, and/or provide support at, official government events and ceremonies;
 - Liaise with dignitaries, foreign missions, and VIPs;
 - Ensure adherence to protocol standards and cultural etiquette;
- Provide logistical and administrative support to the Protocol Lead Coordinators and other team members;
 - Represent Anguilla with professionalism and poise.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Persons who are:

- Excellent communicators with strong interpersonal skills
 - Organized and calm under pressure
 - Culturally aware and respectful of traditions
 - Able to work flexible hours, including evenings and weekends, when necessary
 - Passionate about public service and national representation
- The ability to speak additional languages is a plus.*
