- the licence shall not be renewed until the business pays the arrears for the months that the business was operating without a licence.
- (6) Where an application for a new licence is made during the course of a year, the licence fee payable shall be $\frac{1}{4}$ of the fee specified in subsection (2) for the licence multiplied by the number of calendar quarters from the day the licence is granted until the end of the year, a part of a calendar quarter being calculated as a whole quarter.

Change of address, business activity, ownership etc.

11. (1) Every licensee under this Act shall immediately give notice to the Board of any change—

- (a) in the address from which the business is carried on;
- (b) in the activities carried in relation to the business;
- (c) in the ownership of the business; or
- (d) of any circumstances affecting the licence.

(2) Where the Board determines that there is a material change in relation to the business carried on by the licensee the Board may—

- (a) require the licensee to submit an application for another business licence; or
- (b) vary the business licence where it is deemed appropriate.

(3) Where the address from which the business is carried out has changed the licence shall be amended to reflect this change.

(4) Where a business owned by a licensee is sold, the new owners of the business shall be required to obtain a new business licence to carry on that business.

Renewal of licence (businesses other than companies and limited partnerships)

12. Where a licence has been granted under this Act, it shall be automatically renewed annually where the licensee produces to the Department of Inland Revenue—

- (a) a receipt demonstrating payment of the requisite fee;
- (a) a signed declaration indicating that the conditions of original approval have not changed; and
- (c) where applicable in the case of non-Anguillians, proof that their work permit has been renewed.

Renewal of licence for companies and limited partnerships

13. (1) Where a company or limited partnership seeks to have its licence renewed, the company or limited partnership shall—

- (a) comply with section 12; and
- (b) submit an annual return to the Department of Inland Revenue.

(2) On receipt of an annual return under subsection (1)(b), the Department of Inland Revenue may contact the Companies Registry to verify the accuracy of such returns.

(3) Where the Department of Inland Revenue determines that—

- (a) false or inaccurate annual returns have been submitted; or
- (b) any of the terms of the licence has been breached;

the Department of Inland Revenue shall report its findings to the Commerce Unit along with any documents or other information supporting the Department's findings.

(4) If the Commerce Unit agrees with the findings of the Department of Inland Revenue, the Unit shall forward the matter for consideration by the Board.

(5) The Board after considering the matter referred to it under subsection (4) may issue the company or limited partnership with a notice to comply requiring—

- (a) the production of specified documents within a specified time to demonstrate the company's or limited partnership's compliance; or
- (b) the company or limited partnership to rectify the breach within a specified time.

(6) If the documents referred to in subsection (5) are not produced or the breach is not rectified in accordance with the notice to comply, the Board may suspend the licence for a specified time.

(7) Where the company or limited partnership after a period of suspension, continues to fail to comply with the notice to comply the Board may revoke the licence.

(8) The Board shall promptly communicate to the Comptroller of Inland Revenue any decision made under subsections (5), (6) and (7) in relation to a licensee.

(9) Where the Board is satisfied—

- (a) that the company or limited partnership did not breach its licence; or
- (b) that the annual returns are accurate;

the Board shall issue a direction to the Department of Inland Revenue to renew the licence.

Suspension and revocation of licence

14. (1) Where a licensee fails to comply with the conditions of the licence the Board may—

- (a) suspend the licence for such period as is specified by the Board; and
- (b) issue such orders to be complied with by the licensee within such time specified by the Board.

(2) Where a licensee—

- (a) fails to comply with an order issued under subsection (1) or
- (b) repeatedly breaches the conditions of the licence;

(c) commits a breach that the Board deems to be very grave
the Board may revoke a licence granted under this Act.

(3) Where the Board revokes a licence under this section, the business shall be deemed to be closed for business and is prohibited from conducting business unless a licence is granted under this Act.

(4) Where a licence has been revoked under this section, the licence fee paid under this Act shall be forfeited.

Forfeiture of licence

15. (1) Where a licensee is convicted of any offence in connection with the conduct of the business licensed, the Court may order the licence to be forfeited and that the licensee be disqualified from applying for a new licence for a period not exceeding 3 years.

(2) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (1) the Court shall notify the Board of the order and no licence fee which may have been paid shall be refundable.

Permitting licensed premises to be used for drug offences

16. (1) A licensee who permits the licensed premises to be used for the commission of any offence under the Drugs (Prevention of Misuse) Act, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $2,000 and to imprisonment for 12 months and, notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, in addition thereto the court may order that the licence be revoked forthwith and that the licensed person be disqualified from holding any licence under this Act for such period not exceeding 5 years as the court may determine.

(2) In relation to a company, where a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company or any manager or person in charge of the premises permits the commission of an offence under the Drugs (Prevention of Misuse) Act on such licensed premises, that person and the company are guilty of an offence under subsection (1) and are liable to the penalties and disqualifications specified in subsection (1).

Certificate of licence to be displayed at all times

17. (1) A licence granted under this Act shall be evidenced by a certificate in the prescribed form and such certificate shall be framed by the licensee and shall be publicly and prominently displayed on the site location or premises to which it relates.

(2) Where a licence is granted to a person offering a service or goods online—

(a) a trust badge or seal shall be displayed on the homepage of licensee's website; and

(b) a link shall be provided to an electronic copy of the certificate referred to in subsection (1).

Exchange of information

18. Nothing in the Confidential Relationships Act shall prevent the disclosure between the Comptroller of Inland Revenue, the Chief Immigration Officer, the Registrar of Companies, the Labour Commissioner or the Comptroller of Customs or any other Head of a Department in the Anguilla Public Service or Government Statutory bodies of information in their possession which in their view would assist in the due administration, control and enforcement of this Act.

Ministerial Order

19. (1) The Minister responsible for Commerce, with the approval of Executive Council, may from time to time issue Ministerial Orders which may—

- (a) stipulate the number of licences that may be approved annually in a certain industry;
- (b) prohibit the issuing of licences in a particular industry for a specified period;
- (c) impose a temporary fee reduction to incentivize new business or encourage growth;
- (d) direct that a particular industry is reserved for local enterprise, and that licences should be issued to Anguillians or Anguillian controlled entities only;
- (e) impose a mandatory requirement for minimum qualifications for owners or employees of businesses offering particular services;
- (f) temporarily exempt categories of persons from requiring a licence if there is a need to encourage growth in certain industries; and
- (e) require types of business offering professional services to form a company or limited partnership

(2) The Minister may make such other Ministerial Orders as he sees fit and necessary.

(3) When determining whether or not a Ministerial Order should be made the Minister shall consider the following—

- (a) trade and business data;
- (b) the number of business licences already issued and active in particular industries and the need for moratoriums in specific industries in the economy;
- (c) the need to encourage growth in certain industries;
- (d) promotion of new types of businesses;
- (e) issues of public safety and the general public interest.

Reserved industries

20 (1) Where by Ministerial Order, an industry is reserved for local enterprise the Board shall, in relation to that industry, only issue a licence where—

- (a) an Anguillian owns 100% of share interest in the business; or
- (b) the business is jointly owned by an Anguillian and a non-Anguillian, the Anguillian owns 51% or more share interest in the business.

(2) Where a business is wholly or majority owned by a non-Anguillian, an application for a licence shall only be considered by the Board if the business is not in an industry reserved for local enterprise.

Business engaging in a professional service required to form a company or limited partnership

21. (1) Where a professional service is being offered by a business and this business is owned by more than one person, such business shall be a company or limited partnership.

(2) Businesses offering professional services referred to in subsection (1) include—

- (a) law firms;
- (b) accounting firms;
- (c) engineering firms;
- (d) businesses offering medical services; and
- (e) any other businesses which the Minister by Order designate.

COMMERCE UNIT PROCEDURES

Commerce Unit Procedures

1. The Commerce Unit in the Ministry of Commerce will manage the licensing process.
2. Persons must submit applications by completing the required form¹ with the required supporting documentation to the Commerce Unit either in hard copy or via the online application portal which will be developed to support the new regime. At the time of submission of the application, a non-refundable processing fee will be payable.
4. The Commerce Unit will vet the application and documentation to ensure they are completed accurately and contain the required information. The Unit will consult with other Government Departments or Agencies (including the Department of Labour in relation to consideration of work permits) and also conduct the necessary due diligence and other checks (as outlined below) depending on the applicant and the type of trade or business for which a licence is being sought.
5. As part of its due diligence and consultation protocols, the Commerce Unit will require the collaboration of other Ministries and Departments. Depending on the type of business being contemplated, inspections of the proposed premises/ location will be required from the:
 - Department of Health Protection;
 - Anguilla Fire and Rescue Services; and the
 - Department of Physical Planning.The outcome of these inspections will be documented and submitted to the Commerce Unit for transmission to the Board.
6. On completion of this process, the Unit will forward the application, supporting documentation and findings from consultations and due diligence checks to the Permanent Secretary, with responsibility for Economic Development and Commerce who will convene a meeting of the Board.

¹ Social security numbers will be required on forms
