- (vi) for non-profit, charitable, benevolent or cultural purposes;
- (g) it pursues co-operation with other co-operative societies;
- (h) it provides for continuing education and training; and
- (i) it contributes to the social and economic development of its community.

(2) A co-operative society shall conform to the co-operative principles set out in subsection (1).

PART II

REGISTRATION OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

3. Requirement for registration

- (1) A person shall not carry on the business of a co-operative society unless it is registered in accordance with this Act.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or both.

4. Registrar

- (1) The Registrar of Companies shall be the Registrar of Co-operative Societies whose duty shall be to inspect, monitor, supervise and regulate co-operative societies.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (2) for the purposes of inspecting, monitoring, supervising and regulating credit unions, the Registrar shall be the Financial Services Commission..
- (3) The Registrar shall be assisted by professional and administrative staff, and may delegate duties to any person under his control to assist in the performance of his regulatory and other duties.
- (4) The Registrar shall—
 - (a) register all viable co-operative societies;
 - (b) inspect and monitor all co-operative societies;
 - (c) supervise and regulate all co-operative societies; and
 - (d) lead and manage the regulatory process.

5. Register

The Registrar shall in the case of -

- (a) co-operative societies other than credit unions, keep and maintain a register to be known as the “Register of Co-operative Societies” in which shall be recorded the details of all registered co-operative societies; or

(b) credit unions, keep and maintain a register to be known as the “Register of Credit Unions” in which shall be recorded the details of all registered credit unions.

6. Registrar’s regulatory powers

(1) Where—

- (a) after an examination of a co-operative society or on the receipt of any information, the Registrar is of the opinion that the funds of the co-operative society are not being properly managed or protected; or
- (b) the Registrar has reason to believe that a co-operative society is likely to take any action that would affect its financial soundness the Registrar may—

- (i) by notice in writing, direct the Board to cease that action or practice within a specified period or to take measures as the Registrar considers necessary to protect the funds of the co-operative society and the interests of its members; or
- (ii) place the co-operate society under administrative supervision and appoint a person who in the Registrar’s opinion, has the necessary experience and training to supervise or advise the co-operative society on the action to be taken to remedy the situation.

- (2) A person appointed under subsection (1)(b)(ii) shall hold office for a period not exceeding twelve months and on the terms and conditions that the Registrar specifies.
- (3) A person appointed under subsection (1)(b)(ii) may be paid remuneration as the Registrar may determine, and the remuneration and any other expenses incidental to the appointment, shall be defrayed out of the funds of the co-operative society.
- (4) Where it appears to the Registrar that a provision of this Act, the Regulations or the bye-laws is being contravened, but the circumstances do not justify the taking of action under section 238 or the suspension of registration under section 22, the Registrar may give directives to the co-operative society or person, as seems appropriate.
- (5) A director, committee member, employee or agent of a co-operative society shall at all times give all information required by a person appointed under subsection (1)(b)(ii), for the full and satisfactory performance of his duties; and for this purpose section 185, 186 and 188 shall apply as if any reference therein to the Registrar includes a reference to a person appointed under subsection (1)(b)(ii).
- (6) A person appointed under subsection (1)(b)(ii) shall report on the affairs of the co-operative society to the Registrar in the manner and times as the Registrar may direct,.
- (7) A co-operative society or a person who is required to take any action under this section, may within twenty-one days of the service of the notice by the Registrar, make representation in writing to the Registrar stating why the action required should not be taken.
- (8) Where the co-operative society fails to comply with the notice referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i), after the Board was given the opportunity to be heard in a general meeting called by the Registrar for the purpose, the Registrar may—

- (i) remove from office; or
- (ii) suspend from office for the period as the Registrar considers appropriate, all or any of the directors of the co-operative society and direct that it shall be managed by the persons he appoints for a period not exceeding fifteen months.

- (9) Where a director is suspended under this section, the remaining directors shall be regarded as constituting the Board.
- (10) Where all the directors are removed under this section the person appointed under section 1(b)(ii) shall exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of a duly constituted Board and shall make arrangements prior to the end of his term of management for the election of a new Board in accordance with the bye-laws of the co-operative society.

7. Power to issue guidelines

- (1) The Registrar shall, after consultation with the representatives of registered non dormant co-operative societies, issue guidelines in respect of—
 - (a) prudential standards to be observed by co-operative societies to ensure the safety and soundness of the funds of co-operative societies;
 - (b) the management and investment of the funds of co-operative societies;
 - (c) the calculation and management of doubtful and delinquent loans;
 - (d) self insurance arrangements; and
 - (e) anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism.
- (2) In the case of credit unions, the guidelines issued under this subsection shall be consistent with PEARLS.
- (3) Where the Registrar intends to make any substantive modification to the guidelines, the Registrar shall consult with the representatives of registered non dormant co-operative societies.
- (4) The Registrar shall—
 - (a) make the guidelines and all amendments to the guidelines available for inspection by the public; and
 - (b) on payment of any prescribed fee, provide copies of the guidelines and all amendments available to the public.
- (5) The Registrar shall constantly keep the guidelines under review.
- (6) The Registrar shall publish the guidelines issued under this section and any amendment to the guidelines in the Gazette.

8. Certificate of Registrar

- (1) The Registrar may issue a person with a certificate stating that—
 - (a) a document required to be sent to the Registrar has or has not been received by the Registrar;

- (1) The Registrar may refuse to receive, file or register any document that in his opinion—
 - (a) contains any matter contrary to law;
 - (b) has not, by reason of any omission or error in description, been properly completed;
 - (c) does not comply with the requirements of this Act;
 - (d) contains any error, alteration or erasure;
 - (e) is not legible; or
 - (f) is not durable.
- (2) The Registrar may request in respect of a document refused under subsection (1) that—
 - (a) it be amended or completed and resubmitted; or
 - (b) a new document be submitted in its place.

10. Verification of documents

The Registrar may require that a document or information contained in a document required to be sent to the Registrar be verified by affidavit or otherwise.

11. Application for registration

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an application for registration of a co-operative society shall be submitted to the Registrar in the prescribed form and in the manner as the Registrar may determine.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be signed in the case of a co-operative society —
 - (a) of which no member is registered as a co-operative society, by at least one-third of the total membership of the applicant co-operative society;
 - (b) where not all members of the co-operative society are registered co-operative societies, by at least three-quarters of the total membership of the applicant co-operative society; and
 - (c) where all the members are registered as co-operative societies, on behalf of at least two member co-operative societies.
- (3) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by—
 - (a) three copies of the proposed bye-laws of the co-operative society;
 - (b) the prescribed application fee; and
 - (c) any other information in respect of the co-operative society as the Registrar may require.

12. Content of and amendment to bye-laws

- (1) A co-operative society shall include in its bye-laws provisions in respect of—
 - (a) its objects, core business and conditions of membership, including the—
 - (i) rights of joint members;
 - (ii) qualification for membership, the withdrawal of members and the transfer of membership;
 - (iii) amount of the membership fee and the annual subscription, if any, to be paid by members;
 - (iv) the conditions on which membership ceases or may be terminated;
 - (v) the disposition that may be made on cessation or termination of a member's interest and the determination of the value of the member's interest; and
 - (vi) the qualifying shares that must be held by each member the minimum value being not less than the amount as may be prescribed by Regulations;
 - (b) voting rights and the rights of making, amending and repealing the bye-laws, the right of a member to vote by ballot and the manner, form and effect of votes at meetings;
 - (c) the quorum for meetings;
 - (d) directors, officers and members of the committees of directors—
 - (i) their qualifications, terms of office and removal;
 - (ii) the filling of vacancies; and
 - (iii) their powers and duties;
 - (e) the address of the co-operative society;
 - (f) the distribution of the property of the co-operative society on dissolution;
 - (g) the borrowing powers of the co-operative society and the procedure for exercising those powers; and
 - (h) any matter that the members may consider necessary or desirable.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), where the bye-laws require a greater number of votes of directors or members than that required by this Act to effect any action, the bye-laws shall prevail.
- (3) The bye-laws may not require a greater number of votes of members to remove a director than the number required for a special resolution.
- (4) The members of a co-operative society may, at an annual general meeting or a special meeting, amend the bye-laws by special resolution where notice of the proposed amendment together with notice of the meeting is served by—
 - (a) sending the notice by mail to the members, at the addresses given in the register of members; or
 - (b) publishing the notice in not less than two issues of a newspaper published and circulated in Anguilla, or by posting the notice in a place or through a medium of communication that, as stipulated in the bye-laws and in the opinion of the Board, is prominent and accessible to members.
- (5) An amendment to the bye-laws shall be submitted by the co-operative society to the Registrar for registration in accordance with subsection (6) and no amendment shall be valid until it has been registered.

- (6) An application to register an amendment of the bye-laws shall be accompanied by three copies of the amendment certified to be true copies by the secretary and president of the co-operative society together with a copy of the resolution.
- (7) On being satisfied that an amendment of the bye-laws is not contrary to this Act or the guidelines, the Registrar shall register the amendment.
- (8) On registration of an amendment of the bye-laws of a co-operative society, the Registrar shall send to the co-operative society a certified copy of the amendment, which shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the amendment has been duly registered.
- (9) Where the Registrar refuses to register an amendment the Registrar shall notify the co-operative society in writing of the refusal, reasons for the refusal and of the co-operative society's right to appeal the decision.
10. The co-operative society may, within twenty-one days of the notice of refusal, appeal to the Tribunal.

13. Effect of bye-laws

The bye-laws of a co-operative society when registered bind the co-operative society and its members to the same extent as if they—

- (a) had been signed and sealed by the co-operative society and by every member; and
- (b) contained covenants on the part of each member and the legal representative of each member to observe the bye-laws.

14. Conditions for registration

- (1) A co-operative society shall not be registered, or having been registered, shall not continue to be registered where-

 - (a) decrease the time period specified in subsection (2); or
 - (b) subject to conditions if any stipulate that all debts cease on the death of a member.
- (3) The exercise of the power under subsection (3) is subject to the credit union having consultations with the Financial Services Commission and any other regulatory authority to which it is subject.

29. Withdrawal of membership

- (1) A member of a co-operative society may at any time withdraw from membership of the co-operative society in the manner prescribed by its bye-laws.
- (2) Withdrawal of membership from a co-operative society shall be by written notice addressed to the Board.
- (3) Withdrawal of membership from a co-operative society shall not affect any existing liability of the member to the co-operative society.

30. Termination of membership by Board

- (1) Subject to its bye-laws, the Board may, by a vote of at least two-thirds of the directors present at a meeting called for that purpose, order the termination of membership of a member of a co-operative society.
- (2) Where the Board terminates the membership of a member under this section—
 - (a) the Board shall—
 - (i) within a period of one year, purchase from the member at par value all shares in the co-operative society held by the member; and
 - (ii) pay to the member all amounts held to the member's credit, together with any interest accrued on those amounts and the amount outstanding on any loan made to the co-operative society by the member with any interest accrued on those amounts;
 - (b) the secretary of the co-operative society shall, within ten days from the date on which the order is made, notify the member of the order in writing;
 - (c) the member may appeal from the order to the next general meeting of the co-operative society by giving written notice of his intention to appeal to the secretary within thirty days from the date the member received notice of the order under paragraph (b); and
 - (d) where the member appeals under paragraph (c), a majority or any greater percentage that may be specified in the bye-laws, of the members present at the general meeting shall confirm or rescind the order.
- (3) Where the address of a member the termination of whose membership is ordered under subsection (1) is unknown to the co-operative society after all reasonable efforts have been made to ascertain the member's address for the purpose of making payment to him of all amounts held to his credit, the co-operative society shall transfer those amounts to its statutory reserves.
- (4) Any amount transferred under subsection (3) shall be paid to the person entitled thereto on proof of the person's claim that is satisfactory to the co-operative society.
- (5) Where a co-operative society transfers amounts held to the credit of a member under subsection (3), it shall immediately submit to the Registrar a return showing the—
 - (a) member's name;
 - (b) member's last known address; and
 - (c) amounts transferred.

31. Termination of membership by members

Members may terminate the membership of a member where the—

- (a) member has received at least ten days notice of the general meeting at which his membership is to be considered; and
- (b) termination is approved by a majority of at least two-thirds of the members who—
 - (i) are present at the general meeting and cast votes on the resolution.

- (i) are present at the general meeting; and
- (ii) cast votes on the resolution.

32. Suspension of membership

Subject to the bye-laws, the Board may by notice in writing suspend a member for a period not exceeding three months if they are satisfied that the member is guilty of misconduct after voting on a resolution proposed for that purpose.

33. Appeal

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a person's membership is terminated under section 30 or 31, or suspended under section 32, the person may appeal against the termination or suspension to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and the Registrar shall confirm or set aside the resolution terminating or suspending the membership.
- (2) A person whose membership is terminated for failure to pay fees, assessments, rent or occupancy charges or to fulfil any financial obligations to a co-operative society is not eligible to appeal against the termination of his membership to the Registrar under subsection (1).
- (3) Where a person appeals against the termination of his membership under section 30(2)(c) or this section, notwithstanding the resolution terminating his membership, the person continues to be a member until the termination of his membership is confirmed by the meeting of members under section 30(2)(d) or by the Registrar under this section.

34. Re-admittance

A person whose membership is terminated under section 30 or 31 may be re-admitted to membership only by a two-thirds majority vote of members present and voting at a general meeting.

35. Voting rights of a member who is not an individual

A co-operative society that is a member of another co-operative society shall exercise its voting rights in that other co-operative society through one of its members duly appointed in that behalf as a delegate under section 48.

36. Representatives of member who is not an individual

- (1) Where a co-operative society is a member of another co-operative society, the latter co-operative society shall recognise any individual authorised by a resolution of the directors of the former co-operative society to represent it at meetings of the latter co-operative society.
- (2) An individual authorised under subsection (1) may exercise, on behalf of the co-operative society, all the powers of that co-operative society as if it were an individual member.

37. Voting procedure

- (1) Subject to the bye-laws of a co-operative society members shall vote—
 - (a) by a show of hands; or

- (b) where the majority of the members entitled to vote at a meeting so demands, by secret ballot.
- (2) The chairperson of a meeting has the right to vote, and in the event of a tie he is entitled to a second or casting vote.

38. Place of meetings

General meetings of members shall be held in Anguilla or, in the case of co-operative societies of a regional or international nature, within the defined geographical area of the co-operative society's lawful operations—

- (a) at the place stipulated in the bye-laws; or
- (b) where the bye-laws is silent, at the place determined by the Board.

39. Members not to exercise rights until due payment

A member shall not exercise the rights of membership unless the member has made payment to the co-operative society in respect of membership or acquired an interest in the co-operative society as specified in the bye-laws of the co-operative society or as prescribed.

40. First general meeting

- (1) This section does not apply to a co-operative society which is deemed to be registered under section 257.
- (2) Within two months of the date of its registration, a co-operative society shall hold a general meeting at which all members are entitled to be present and to vote.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where the Board applies to the Registrar, the Registrar may extend the time for holding the general meeting.
- (4) The business at the general meeting mentioned in subsection (2) shall include the—
 - (a) adoption of the bye-laws;
 - (b) adoption of forms of share certificates and records of the co-operative society;
 - (c) authorising of the issue of shares;
 - (d) appointment of an auditor to hold office until the next annual general meeting;
 - (e) making of banking arrangements; and
 - (f) transaction of any other business.

41. Annual general meetings

- (1) A co-operative society shall hold an annual meeting in each year not later than three months after the end of its financial year.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where the Registrar receives a written request from the Board of a co-operative society prior to the expiration of the period of three months referred to in subsection (1), the Registrar may authorise the co-operative society to hold the annual general meeting at any date not later than six months after the end of the financial year of the co-operative society.
- (3) The bye-laws may provide for holding semi-annual or other periodic meetings.

42. Special general meeting

- (1) The Board may call a special general meeting of the members of a co-operative society at any time.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Board shall call a special general meeting of the members on receipt of a written request, specifying the purpose of the meeting, from not less than the number of members specified in the bye-laws.
- (3) The Board shall call a special general meeting within twenty days of receipt of the request and the special meeting shall dispose of the business specified therein.
- (4) The Registrar may call a special general meeting of the co-operative society—
 - (a) for the purpose of reporting to the members the results of any audit, examination or other investigation of the co-operative society's affairs ordered or made by the Registrar, or
 - (b) where the co-operative society fails to hold an annual general meeting in accordance with section 41(1) or (2).

43. Meeting called by Registrar

- (1) Where—
 - (a) in the opinion of the Board it is impracticable—
 - (i) to call a general meeting of members in the manner in which meetings of members may be called; or
 - (ii) to conduct a general meeting of members in the manner prescribed in this Act or in the bye-laws; or
 - (b) for any reason, in addition to those described in paragraph (a), and the Registrar considers it necessary the Registrar on his own initiative may, if satisfied that a meeting is warranted in the circumstances, order a general meeting to be called, held and conducted as the Registrar may direct.
- (2) Without restricting the generality of subsection (1), the Registrar may order that the quorum required in this Act or the bye-laws be varied or dispensed with at a general meeting called under this section.

44. Resolution in lieu of meeting

- (1) Except where a written statement is submitted by an auditor under section 141 a resolution in writing —
 - (a) signed by the number of members entitled to vote on that resolution at a general meeting of members as may be specified in the bye-laws is as valid as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the members; and
 - (b) dealing with any matter required by this Act to be dealt with at a general meeting of members and signed by all the members entitled to vote at that meeting—
 - (i) satisfies all the requirements of this Act relating to meetings of members; and
 - (ii) subject to subsection (2), is effective from the date specified in the resolution.
- (2) The effective date of a resolution described in subsection (1)(b)(ii) shall not be earlier than the date on which the first member signed the resolution.

- (3) A copy of every resolution described in subsection (1) shall be kept with the minutes of the meetings of members.

45. Notice of meetings

- (1) A co-operative society shall give at least ten days notice to its members of any annual meeting or special meeting by—
 - (a) sending the notice by mail to the members, at the addresses recorded in the register of members; or
 - (b) publishing the notice in not less than two issues of a newspaper published and circulated in Anguilla, or by posting the notice in a place or through a medium of communication that, as stipulated in the bye-laws and in the opinion of the Board, is prominent and accessible to members.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where a co-operative society is required to send a statement, agreement, proposal or other document to its members with a notice of a meeting and decides to insert the notice of a meeting in a newspaper under paragraph (1)(b), the co-operative society shall—
 - (a) in the notice, inform the members of the document, giving a description of the document that, in the opinion of the Board, is adequate to describe its nature; and
 - (b) make a copy of the document available to any member or delegate who requests it.
- (3) The notice of any special meeting shall specify the purpose for which the meeting is being called.
- (4) The proceedings or the business transacted at a general meeting shall not be invalidated by reason only of the non-receipt by a member of notice of the meeting.

46. Fixing of record date

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), for the purpose of determining members—
 - (a) entitled to receive payment of a bonus or dividend;
 - (b) entitled to participate in a distribution on liquidation; or
 - (c) for any other purpose except the right to receive notice of or to vote at a general meeting,the Board may fix in advance a date as the record date for the determination of members.
- (2) The record date mentioned in subsection (1) shall not precede, by more than 30 days, the particular action to be taken.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), for the purpose of determining members entitled to receive notice of a general meeting, the Board may fix in advance a date as the record date for the determination of members.
- (4) The record date mentioned in subsection (3) shall not precede, by more than fifty days or by less than eleven days, the date on which the meeting is to be held.
- (5) Where the Board does not fix a record date—
 - (a) the record date for the determination of members entitled to receive notice of a general meeting shall be—

- (i) the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the notice is given; or
 - (ii) if no notice is given, the day on which the meeting is held; and
- (b) the record date for the determination of members for any purpose other than that described in paragraph (a) shall be at close of business on the day on which the Board passes a resolution relating to that purpose.

 - (b) the person satisfies the conditions described in subsection (2).
- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (3), a co-operative society shall indemnify a director, officer or other person referred to in subsection (1) who has been substantially successful in the defence of a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which the person is made a party by reason of the person being or have been a director or officer of the co-operative society or body corporate against costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the person with respect to the action or proceedings.
- (5) A co-operative society or a director, officer or other person referred to in subsection (1) may apply to the court for an order approving the indemnity and the court may make the requested order taking into consideration any costs awarded by the adjudicating body..
- (6) On an application under subsection (5), the court may order notice to be given to an interested person, and that interested person is entitled to appear and be heard in person or by an attorney-at-law.

76. Duty of care of directors and officers

Every director and officer of a co-operative society in exercising his powers and discharging his duties shall—

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the co-operative society; and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances, and shall be liable to make good any loss or damage suffered by the co-operative society as a direct or indirect result of a contravention of this section.

77. Ambit of duty

The provisions of a contract, the bye-laws or the circumstances of his appointment do not relieve a director from—

- (a) the duty to act in accordance with this Act; or
- (b) liability that by virtue of a rule of law would otherwise attach to him with respect to negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the co-operative society.

78. Liability of directors

- (1) Where directors vote for, or consent to, a resolution authorising, or approve by any other means—
- (a) the purchase of shares of another co-operative society contrary to section 99;

- (b) the payment of a dividend on shares contrary to section 128;
 - (c) the payment of a bonus contrary to section 128;
 - (d) a loan or guarantee or the giving of financial assistance contrary to section 120;
 - (e) a payment of an indemnity described in section 75 to a director or a former director, without the approval of the court required by section 75(3); or
 - (f) an act not consistent with the purpose of the co-operative society as set out in its bye-laws and with respect to which the co-operative society has paid compensation to a person,
- they are jointly and severally liable to make good any loss or damage suffered by the co-operative society.
- (2) On the application of a director, the court may declare whether or not, having regard to all the relevant circumstances the—
 - (a) co-operative society is insolvent; or
 - (b) payment of a bonus or dividend or the lending of money would make the co-operative society insolvent.
 - (3) The liability imposed by subsection (1) is in addition to and not in derogation from a liability imposed on a director by any other law.
 - (4) Subject to subsection (5), for the purpose of this section, a director who is present at a meeting of directors or of a committee shall be deemed to have cast a vote in favour of a resolution or of granting the approval mentioned in subsection (1), unless—
 - (a) the director's dissent is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or
 - (b) the director's written dissent is delivered —
 - (i) to the secretary of the meeting before its adjournment; or
 - (ii) sent by registered mail to the registered office of the co-operative society immediately after the adjournment of the meeting.
 - (5) A director who votes for or consents to a resolution mentioned in subsection (1) is not entitled to dissent under subsection (4).
 - (6) Where a director is not present at a meeting of directors or of a committee at which a vote, resolution or approval mentioned in subsection (1) is cast or given, the director shall be taken to have cast an affirmative vote, consented to the resolution or given approval, unless, within fourteen days after becoming aware of the proceedings, the director delivers or sends by registered mail his or her written dissent to the registered office of the co-operative society.
 - (7) On receipt of a written dissent, the secretary of the co-operative society shall—
 - (a) certify on the written dissent the date, time and place it is received; and
 - (b) keep the written dissent in the minutes of the meeting at which the resolution was passed.
 - (8) An action to enforce a liability imposed in subsection (1) shall not be commenced after two years from the date of the meeting at which the vote, resolution or approval was taken or given.
 - (9) In an action to enforce a liability imposed in subsection (1), the Court may, on the application of the co-operative society or a defendant—

- (a) join as a defendant a person who received a benefit as a result of the resolution complained of; and
- (b) make the person mentioned in paragraph (a) liable to the co-operative society jointly and severally with the directors to the extent of the amount paid to the person.

(10) A director shall not be liable under subsection (1) where the director—

- (a) proves that he or she did not know or could not reasonably have known that the act authorised by the resolution was contrary to this Act;
- (b) relies and acts in good faith on statements —
 - (i) of facts represented to him by an officer of the co-operative society to be correct; or
 - (ii) contained in a written report or opinion of the auditor of the co-operative society or a professional person engaged by the co-operative society who is competent to give advice in respect to the matter.

(11) A director who is found liable under subsection (1) is entitled to apply to a court for an order compelling a member or other recipient to pay or deliver to the director any money or property that was paid or distributed to the member, or other recipient contrary to section 99, 120 or 128.

(12) In connection with an application under subsection (11) and where the court is satisfied that it is equitable to do so, it may—

- (a) order a member or other recipient to pay or deliver to a director any money or property that was paid or distributed to the member or other recipient contrary to section 99, 120 or 128; or
- (b) make any order, other than that described in paragraph (a), that it considers appropriate.

79. Misuse of confidential information

(1) A director, officer, committee member or employee or an associate of a director, officer, committee member or employee, who, in connection with a transaction relating to shares of a co-operative society or a debt obligation of a co-operative society, makes use of confidential information for the benefit or advantage of himself or an associate that, if generally known, might reasonably be expected to affect materially the value of the share or the debt obligation is—

- (a) liable to compensate any person for a direct loss suffered by the person as a result of the transaction, unless the information was known or reasonably should have been known to the person at the time of the transaction; and
- (b) accountable to the co-operative society for any direct benefit or advantage received or receivable by him associate as a result of the transaction.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person who has acquired confidential information concerning a co-operative society or a member of a co-operative society as a—

- (a) director, committee member, officer, employee or auditor of the co-operative society;
- (b) liquidator, receiver or manager, of the co-operative society; or
- (c) Registrar, or

(d) an officer or staff referred to in section 4, shall not disclose that information except as permitted under subsection (3), or use that information for any reason not related to the duties through which the information was acquired.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the giving of confidential information where the information —
- (a) is given in the course of that person's duty;
 - (b) is a general credit rating of a person that is supplied by a director or employee of the co-operative society following a bona fide business request;
 - (c) relates to a member of a co-operative society and is given with the written authorisation of that member or his legal representative;
 - (d) relates to a co-operative society and is given with the written authorisation of the co-operative society or its legal representative; or
 - (e) is required to be disclosed by law or by an order of the Court.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars or to one year imprisonment or to both.

80. Declaration of interests

- (1) A director, committee member or employee of a co-operative society who—
- (a) is a party to a material contract or proposed material contract with the co-operative society; or
 - (b) is a director, committee member or employee of, or has a material interest in, a person who is party to a material contract or proposed material contract with the co-operative society,
- shall disclose in writing to the co-operative society the nature and extent of his interest.
- (2) The disclosure required by subsection (1) shall be made—
- (a) immediately after the director, committee member or employee becomes aware that the contract or proposed contract is to be considered or has been considered at a meeting of the Board;
 - (b) where the director, committee member or employee becomes interested after a contract is made, immediately after he or she becomes so interested; or
 - (c) where the director, committee member or employee has an interest in a contract before assuming office, immediately after he or she becomes a director, committee member or employee.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a general notice to the directors by a director, committee member or employee of a co-operative society declaring that he or she is to be regarded as interested in any contract made with that person is a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract made with that person.

81. Disclosure of interests at meetings

- (1) Where a director, committee member or employee of a co-operative society has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any contract, proposed contract or other matter and is present at a meeting of the co-operative society, Board or committee at which the contract, proposed contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, he shall at the meeting and as soon as practicable after its commencement disclose the fact and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of the contract, proposed contract or other matter or vote on any question with respect to it and shall be excluded from the meeting for the duration of the consideration, discussion and voting procedure.
- (2) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on—
 - (a) summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand dollars or to 2 years imprisonment or to both; or
 - (b) conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars or to 2 years imprisonment or to both, unless the person proves that he did not know that the contract, proposed contract or other matter in which he had a pecuniary interest was the subject of consideration at that meeting.

- (3) A disclosure under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the co-operative society, Board or committee.
- (4) An act or proceeding of the co-operative society, Board or committee shall not be questioned on the ground that a director, committee member or employee has contravened this section.
- (5) Where a director, committee member or employee of a co-operative society is not entitled to vote at a meeting under subsection (1) and his presence is required to constitute a quorum at the meeting, a decision of the co-operative society, Board or committee is to be taken not to be invalid only by reason of the absence of the director, committee member or employee.
- (6) Where a director, committee member or employee of a co-operative society fails to disclose his interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter in accordance with this section, a court may, on the application of a co-operative society or a member of the co-operative society, set aside the contract or other matter on any terms that the court considers appropriate.

82 Pecuniary interests for the purposes of section 81

- (1) For the purposes of section 81, a director, committee member or employee shall be treated, subject to the following provisions of this section and to section 83, as having indirectly a pecuniary interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter where he—
 - (a) or his nominee is a member of a company or other body with which the contract was made or is proposed to be made or which has a direct pecuniary interest in the licence or other matter under consideration; or

- (b) is a partner, or is in the employment of a person with whom the contract was made or is proposed to be made, or who has a direct pecuniary interest in the licence or other matter under consideration; or
 - (c) or his is a professional adviser to a person who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to membership of or employment under any public body.
 - (3) In the case of married persons the interest of one spouse shall be deemed for the purpose of section 81 to be also the interest of the other.

83. Removal or exclusion of disability

- (1) Section 81 does not apply to an interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter which a director, committee member or employee of a co-operative society has as a member of the public or to an interest in any matter relating to the terms on which the right to participate in any service is offered to the public.
- (2) Where a director, committee member or employee of a co-operative society has an indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter by reason only of a beneficial interest in securities of a company or other body and-
 - (a) the nominal value of those securities does not exceed five thousand dollars or one-thousandth of the total nominal value of the issued share capital of the company or other body, whichever is the less;
 - (c) and if the share capital is of more than one class, the total nominal value of shares of any one class in which he has a beneficial interest does not exceed one-thousandth of the total issued share capital of that class, section 81 shall not prohibit him from taking part in the consideration or discussion of the contract, proposed contract or other matter or from voting on any question with respect to it without prejudice to his duty to disclose his interest.

84. Meetings of directors generally

- (1) Subject to the bye-laws, the directors may meet at any place, and on any notice that they consider appropriate.
- (2) The president—
 - (a) may call a meeting of directors at any time; and
 - (b) on the written request of at least two directors, shall call a meeting within fourteen days of the receipt of the request.
- (3) A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of directors.
- (4) Subject to the bye-laws, a notice of a meeting of directors may specify the purpose of or other business to be transacted at the meeting.
- (5) For the purpose of subsection (4), attendance of a director at a meeting of directors is deemed to be a waiver of notice of the meeting, unless the director attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called.

- (6) Where the time and place of an adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting, notice of an adjourned meeting of directors is not required to be given to the directors present at that meeting, but shall be given to any director not present.

85. Meetings by telephone

- (1) Subject to the bye-laws, where all the directors consent, a meeting of directors or of a committee may be held by means of a—
- (a) telephone system; or
 - (b) communication facility other than a telephone,
- that permits all persons participating in the meeting to hear and speak to each other, and a person so participating is deemed to be present at that meeting.
- (2) Unless this Act or the bye-laws require a meeting, a resolution of the directors may be passed without a meeting where—
- (a) all the directors consent to the resolution in writing; and
 - (b) the consent is filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the directors.

86. Attendance at meetings

- (1) A director of a co-operative society is entitled to receive notice of and to attend and be heard at every general meeting of members.
- (2) Where a director—
- (a) resigns;
 - (b) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of members called for the purpose of removing him from office; or
 - (c) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of directors or members at which another person is to be appointed or elected to fill his office, whether because of the director's resignation or removal or because his term of office is about to expire,
- the director is entitled to submit to the co-operative society a written statement giving the reason for his resignation or the reasons he opposes any proposed action or resolution.
- (3) A co-operative society shall immediately send a copy of the statement mentioned in subsection (2) to the Registrar and shall make available a copy of the statement to every member.
- (4) A co-operative society or person acting on its behalf shall not incur any liability by reason only of circulating a director's statement sent in compliance with subsection (3).

87. Organisational meeting of directors

- (1) The directors shall hold an organisational meeting within ten days after the issue of the co-operative society's certificate of registration.
- (2) The directors may, at that meeting—
- (a) pass resolutions establishing policies of the co-operative society;
 - (b) adopt forms of corporate records;
 - (c) appoint officers;
 - (d) authorise the issue of securities;

- (e) appoint an auditor to hold office until the first general meeting of the members;
 - (f) make banking or other financial arrangements;
 - (g) appoint authorised signing officers;
 - (h) adopt operating policies; and
 - (i) transact any other business.
- (3) A director may call the organisational meeting by giving not less than five days' notice of the meeting to each director, stating the time and place of the meeting.

88. Directors ceasing to hold office

- (1) A director ceases to hold office when he—
- (a) resigns;
 - (b) dies;
 - (c) fails to attend three consecutive meetings without an accepted excuse;
 - (d) fails to perform any duty allotted to him as a member of the Board;
 - (e) is removed in accordance with section 89; or
 - (f) is no longer qualified in accordance with this Act.
- (2) A resignation of a director becomes effective—
- (a) with immediate effect where that person notifies the members present at an annual general meeting that he is resigning;
 - (b) at the time specified in a written resignation; or
 - (c) where no time is specified in a written resignation, at the time the resignation is received by the secretary of the co-operative society.

89. Removal of directors

- (1) Subject to the Regulations and the bye-laws, the members of a co-operative society may, by special resolution, remove any director from office.
- (2) A vacancy created by the removal of a director may be filled at the meeting of the members at which the director is removed or where not so filled shall be filled under section 71(1)(e).

90. Notice of change of directors

- (1) Within thirty days after a change is made in its directors, a co-operative society shall send to the Registrar a notice in the prescribed form setting out the change and the Registrar shall file the notice.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a co-operative society sends the annual return in accordance with section 146, within thirty days after a change is made in its directors, it is not required to send the notice required by this section.

91. Declaration by directors and officers

A co-operative society may by resolution passed by a majority of the members at an annual or special meeting require all directors and officers to sign annually or at any other time that may be specified in the resolution a declaration relating to the—

- (a) faithful performance of duties;

- (b) secrecy of transactions with members; and
- (c) faithful and loyal support of the co-operative society.

92. Bonding

The directors shall require that every person appointed to an office that receives, manages or handles goods, merchandise or money on behalf of the co-operative society shall give to the directors, before entering on his duties as an officer, security or a bond in an amount as they may require.

93. Remuneration of directors

- (1) A co-operative society shall not pay any remuneration directly or indirectly to a director or committee member in connection with his duties or for any service performed by that person in that capacity.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prohibit the reimbursement of expenses which—
 - (a) are necessarily incurred by a director or committee member in the course of performing any service on behalf, or for the benefit, of the co-operative society; and
 - (b) is approved by a majority of the directors voting at a meeting of the Board.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prohibit any director or committee member of a co-operative society, acting in his professional capacity, from tendering for the supply of, and where successful being paid for supplying, goods or services to the co-operative society.
- (4) The directors may be granted an honorarium for services rendered which does not exceed an amount recommended by the Board and approved by a general meeting of the members.
- (5) A co-operative society may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of directors, members of a committee, officers or employees against liability, loss and damage incurred by that person while serving the co-operative society as a director, officer, committee member or employee.

94. Remuneration of officers and employees

Subject to section 93 and the bye-laws, the directors shall fix the salary of all employees appointed by the directors and shall approve a scale of remuneration for all employees of a co-operative society.

PART V

FINANCING

95. Shares

- (1) A co-operative society may sell equity shares to its members only, but these shares shall be non-withdrawable but redeemable in accordance with sections 30 and 102 and as may be prescribed by Regulations and the shares shall have a par value fixed by the bye-laws.
- (2) Unless a co-operative society is required by this Act or any other enactment to limit its number of shares it shall have an unlimited number of shares.

- (3) A share in a co-operative society is personal property and a shareholder is entitled to an annual statement showing the number of shares that he owns.

96. Share capital

- (1) A co-operative society shall express its share capital in its bye-laws as—
 - (a) an amount of money divided into a specified number of shares set out in the bye-laws; or
 - (b) an unlimited number of shares with a specified par value.
- (2) A co-operative society shall issue qualifying shares as well as equity shares.

97. Issue of shares

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a co-operative society may issue shares at any time and for any consideration that the directors consider appropriate.
- (2) Subject to the bye-laws, a co-operative society shall sell its shares at their par value.
- (3) A co-operative society shall not issue a share until it is fully paid—
 - (a) in money; or
 - (b) in property that, in the opinion of the directors, is the fair equivalent of the money that the co-operative society would have received if the share had been issued for money.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (4)(b), when determining whether property is the fair equivalent of a money consideration, the directors may take into account reasonable charges and expenses of organisation and reorganisation and payment for property reasonably expected to benefit the co-operative society.
- (5) For the purposes of this section “property” does not include a promissory note or a promise to pay.

98. Alteration of authorised capital

- (1) Subject to the approval of the Registrar a co-operative society may, by special resolution, increase or decrease its share capital and, for that purpose, may—
 - (a) subdivide any shares;
 - (b) consolidate shares into shares of a larger par value, but the par value of consolidated shares shall not be greater than one hundred dollars;
 - (c) cancel any share that, at the date of registration of the bye-laws, have not been subscribed for or agreed to be issued and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the par value of the shares so cancelled;
 - (d) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares with respect to share capital not paid up;
 - (e) with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel any paid up share capital that is lost or unrepresented by available assets; and
 - (f) with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares and either with or without reducing the number of such shares, pay off any paid-up share capital that is greater than the requirements of the co-operative society.

- (2) The Registrar may give his approval under subsection (1) where the Registrar is satisfied that—
- (a) the resolution will not contravene this Act;
 - (b) the holders of all shares of the co-operative society affected by the proposed resolution have approved the special resolution passed by the members at a general meeting called for the purpose; and
 - (c) in the case of a special resolution providing for a reduction in the share capital of the co-operative society—
 - (i) all creditors who are liable to be affected have been notified of the resolution and have signified their approval; or
 - (ii) appropriate steps have been taken by the co-operative society to adequately safeguard the interests of its creditors.

99. Limitation on purchase of shares

Subject to the approval of the Registrar, only a registered co-operative society may purchase more than one-fifth of the shares of another co-operative society where—

- (a) that other co-operative society is insolvent;
- (b) the proposed purchase or acquisition would not render the purchasing co-operative society insolvent; or
- (c) subject to paragraph (b), the proposed purchase or acquisition would not, in the opinion of the Board, be detrimental to the financial stability of the purchasing co-operative society.

100. Transfer of shares generally

- (1) A share may be transferred with the approval of the Board to any person, but if the transferee is not a member, he or she shall be approved as a member by the Board, or by a general meeting according to the bye-laws relating to the admission of members before the transfer can be registered.
- (2) If the bye-laws require a member to hold more than one share, a transferee shall acquire by the transfer, or by the transfer and allotment, the number so required to be held before the transfer can be registered.
- (3) A transfer of shares shall be effected in the form as the Registrar may determine.
- (4) A transfer of a share shall not be valid and effective unless and until the transfer has been registered by the Secretary on the direction of the Board.
- (5) A transfer of a share made by a member indebted to the co-operative society shall not be registered without the written permission of the Board and until the transfer is registered a-
 - (a) right shall not be acquired against the co-operative society by the transferee; and
 - (b) claim of the co-operative society upon the transferor shall not be affected by the transfer.

101. Transfer of shares of member of unsound mind

- (1) Where a member or person claiming through a co-operative society has become of unsound mind or incapable of managing his affairs and no committee, receiver or guardian has been appointed, the co-operative society may subject to this section and section 100 transfer the share or interest of that member to any person nominated by the member for the purposes of section 105 or may pay to the person nominated a sum ascertained in accordance with subsection (5) representing the value of the share or interest of the member.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), where no nominee has been appointed, the co-operative society may pay a sum representing the value of the member's share or interest to the Registrar of the High Court.
- (3) Where the value of the share or interest does not exceed one hundred dollars the Board may, subject to any conditions it thinks fit, pay the whole or any portion thereof to the person who appears to have the care of the member or the management of the member's affairs.
- (4) All transfers and payments made by a co-operative society in accordance with this section shall be valid and effective against any demand made upon the co-operative society by any person.
- (5) For the purposes of this section and section 99, the value of any share or interest shall be represented by the sum actually paid for that share or interest by the member holding it unless the bye-laws of the co-operative society otherwise provide.
- (6) Where the benefits of group insurance have accrued on such share or interest, the value of the benefits shall be the amount actually received by the co-operative society on the account of the deceased member.

102. Transfer of share or interest on death of member

- (1) On the death of a member of a co-operative society, where a person has been nominated by the member in accordance with section 105 and the nominee is admitted to membership of the co-operative society, the co-operative society shall within one year of the death of the member by whom the nomination was made, transfer the shares or interest of the deceased member to the nominee.
- (2) On the death of a member of a co-operative society, where a person has been nominated by the member in accordance with section 105 has not been admitted to membership of the co-operative society, the co-operative society shall within one year of the death of the member by whom the nomination was made pay to the nominee the sum which represents the value of the deceased member's share or interest in the co-operative society.
- (3) On the death of a member of a co-operative society, where the deceased member made no nomination, the co-operative society shall within one year of the death of the member pay to the legal personal representative of the deceased member, the sum which represents the value of the deceased member's share or interest in the co-operative society.
- (4) This section shall be construed as prohibiting a nominee who has been admitted to membership from electing to receive payment representing the value of the deceased member's shares or interest instead of accepting a transfer.
- (5) Where after a period of one year there is no nominee or legal personal representative of the deceased member to which the shares or interest may be transferred or to which a sum representing the value of the deceased member's share or interest may be paid, the share or interest shall be transferred to the development fund of the co-operative society.

- (6) The shares or interest transferred under subsection (4) shall remain in the development fund for a period of ten years during which period it shall remain available to bona fide claimants, after which it shall constitute a part of the reserves of the co-operative society.
- (7) From the second year after the death of the deceased until the tenth year referred to in subsection (6) a notice to the effect that the deceased member's share or interest in the cooperative society remains unclaimed shall be annually published in the Gazette and a newspaper circulating in Anguilla.

103. Restrictions on transfer of shares

Shares or interest or any part thereof in the capital of a co-operative society shall not be transferred unless the transfer is made to a member thereof or to a person whose application for membership has been accepted.

104. Conditions for the validity of transfer of shares

- (1) Subject to the bye-laws, a transfer of shares in a co-operative society is not valid for any purpose unless—
 - (a) a written application for membership by the transferee is approved and the transfer is authorised by a—
 - (i) resolution of the directors; or
 - (ii) person authorised by a resolution of the directors to approve applications and transfers of that kind; and
 - (b) notification of any approval given under paragraph (a) is sent to the transferee and his name is entered on the register of members.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a transfer of a share is valid for the purpose of providing evidence of the rights of the parties to the transfer between the transferor and the transferee.

105. Power of nomination

- (1) A member of a co-operative society may nominate a person or persons to or among whom there shall be transferred at his death any property in the co-operative society of which he is the owner at the time of his death, or as may subsequently have accrued thereon, whether in shares, loans or deposits, or so much thereof as is specified in the nomination if the nomination does not comprise the whole.
- (2) A nomination under subsection (1) shall be made by instrument in writing signed by the member in the presence of two attesting witnesses and either delivered at or sent to the registered office of the co-operative society during the lifetime of the member or made in any book kept at the co-operative society's registered office.
- (3) A member of the co-operative society may nominate more than one person only if he holds more than one share.
- (4) A nomination made under subsection (1) may be revoked or varied by a subsequent nomination, or by a similar document in the nature of a revocation or variation, signed, attested and delivered, and sent or made in accordance with subsection (1), but any nomination may not be revoked or varied by the will or a codicil of the nominator.

- (5) All nominations and all revocations or variations received by a co-operative society shall be maintained in a separate record kept at the registered office of the co-operative society.

PART VI

BUSINESS OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY

106. Marketing of produce through the co-operative society

- (1) A co-operative society which has as one of its objects the marketing of any article or produce obtained by the work or industry of its members may by its bye-laws or otherwise contract with its members that—
 - (a) every member who produces any article or produce obtained by his work or industry shall market the whole or any specified amount, portion or description thereof to or through the co-operative society; and

- (2) A magistrate shall have jurisdiction under subsection (1) notwithstanding that the amount due exceeds the limits of jurisdiction of a magistrate as specified in the Magistrates Code of Procedure Act RSA c, M5.

112. Assignment of charge

- (1) A co-operative society may borrow from any other co-operative society or from any bank approved by the Registrar on the security of a charge.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) a charge may be executed and registered in accordance with section 108 and may be assigned to the other co-operative society or bank.
- (3) An assignment of a charge under this section may be registered in the same manner as a charge and section 108 shall apply, subject to any necessary modifications, to an assignment so registered.
- (4) An assignment of a charge when registered shall operate as a first charge in favour of the assignee subject to section 109.
- (4) Where a charge is assigned to a co-operative society established with the object of facilitating the operation of other co-operative societies, the co-operative society may borrow from any bank approved by the Registrar and for this purpose may re-assign any charge to the bank and subsections (3) and (4) shall apply, subject to any necessary modifications, to such reassignment.

113. Bond as security for charge

- (1) A co-operative society may require a member or officer to give a bond with or without sureties as additional security for the repayment of a loan.
- (2) Conditions imposed on the member or officer relating to the payment of capital and interest under a charge or loan agreement shall be strictly observed and performed by the member or officer and on breach of any condition the bond shall be forfeited forthwith.
- (3) Section 112 relating to the assignment of charges shall apply subject to any necessary modifications to the assignment of bonds.

114. Lien on shares

- (1) A co-operative society shall have a lien on a share or any amount outstanding to the credit of a member or his or her legal representative for a debt due by that member to the co-operative society.
- (2) A co-operative society may enforce a lien mentioned in subsection (1) in the manner prescribed in regulations made under this Act.
- (3) The Board may, in default of payment by any member indebted to a co-operative society, apply the sum paid up for the time being on any shares held by that member in or towards the discharge of the debt and of any expenses relating to the debt or its discharge, and the defaulting member shall cease to have any further claim in respect of the shares.

115. Deductions applied to loans and shares

The bye-laws of a co-operative society may provide that the co-operative society may—

- (a) deduct an amount from the moneys it receives for the goods, products or services it has marketed, handled, or dealt with for or on behalf of a member or non-member patron; and
- (b) may apply the amount referred to in paragraph (a) towards a loan or the purchase of shares on terms as the Board may determine.

116. Purchase of shares

- (1) Subject to section 114, a co-operative society may purchase or otherwise acquire any of its shares that—
 - (a) are available for compulsory purchase under section 118; or
 - (b) are offered for sale.
- (2) A co-operative society shall pay in cash, within one year of the date of purchase, for any shares purchased under subsection (1).
- (3) A co-operative society shall pay a purchase price for a share purchased under this section equal to the par value of the share together with any dividends declared but unpaid with respect to the share.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), where a co-operative society purchases or otherwise acquires shares issued by it, those shares shall be deemed to be cancelled.

- (5) Where the bye-laws of a co-operative society limit the number of shares, any shares of the co-operative society purchased or otherwise acquired by the co-operative society may be treated as unissued shares.

117. Prohibition on purchase of shares

- (1) Notwithstanding section 116, a co-operative society shall not purchase or otherwise acquire its shares where—
- (a) it is insolvent;
 - (b) the proposed purchase or acquisition would render it insolvent; or
 - (c) subject to subsection (2), the proposed purchase or acquisition would, in the opinion of the Board, be detrimental to the financial stability of the co-operative society.
- (2) Where a purchase or other acquisition of shares under section 116 or 118, would in the opinion of the Board, impair the financial stability of the co-operative society or would be contrary to the interest of the remaining members the Board may suspend the purchase or acquisition of the shares.
- (3) The Board may not suspend the purchase of shares under subsection (2) for a period longer than one year unless the suspension is approved—
- (a) by the Registrar; or
 - (b) by a special resolution of the members.

118. Compulsory sale of shares

Where—

- (a) winding-up proceedings have commenced with respect to a body corporate that is a member of a co-operative society; or
- (b) a member of a co-operative society has, during a period of two years, failed to transact any business with the co-operative society, the co-operative society may, by written notice to the member, require the member to sell his shares to the co-operative society.

PART VII

- (3) The investments referred to in subsection (2) (d), (e), (f), (g) and (i) shall not exceed in aggregate twenty per cent of the unimpaired capital base of a credit union.
 - (4) The equity investment of a co-operative society in any entity shall be limited to twenty percent of the equity investment of that entity.
 - (5) A society shall not invest the funds referred to in subsection (2) in a single institution or instrument.

120. Loan by credit union

- (1) The Board of a credit union or a central credit union or central co-operative society shall establish written policies for the consideration, approval and administration of loans, guarantees, advances and other forms of financial assistance as a primary service to its members.
- (2) Except for a loan to another co-operative society, a loan shall not be made to a member by a co-operative society not specified in subsection (1) and a loan shall not be made by a co-operative society mentioned in subsection (1) to a person who is not a member of that co-operative society.
- (3) A loan shall not be made by a credit union to a director, committee member, or employee of the credit union of a sum in excess of the aggregate value of his or her shares, deposits and accumulated dividend and interest thereon unless adequate security is provided for the amount of the loan in excess of that value.
- (4) A loan shall not be made to a director, committee member or employee referred to in subsection (3) on any terms relating to interest rates, discounts or waivers or on any other terms more favourable than those offered to the general membership.
- (5) A credit union shall not directly or indirectly, except with the approval of and subject to terms and conditions as the Registrar may determine make a loan to a member, a group of borrowing members or associates if the loan would cause the aggregate amount of loans to the member, the group of borrowing members or associates to exceed twenty per cent of the aggregate amount of its unimpaired capital base. .

- (6) In accordance with section 81, a director, committee member or employee of a credit union shall declare his or her interest in a loan at a meeting in which the loan is to be discussed and shall not be present or participate in a meeting when his application for a loan is being considered.
- (8) Any loan made in contravention of this section shall be void and shall be repaid to the co-operative society on demand.
- (9) Subject to this section, the bye-laws of a credit union shall provide for limits on the amounts of loans to any one member or on any type of loans.

121. Prohibited loans

Subject to this Act, a co-operative society shall not, directly or indirectly, give a loan, guarantee or other means of financial assistance—

- (a) to a member, director, officer, committee member or employee of the co-operative society or an associate of any such person for any purpose; or
- (b) to any person for the purpose of or in connection with, the acquisition of membership of the co-operative society or the purchase of a share issued or to be issued by the co-operative society or member, where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the co-operative society is insolvent or would, after giving the financial assistance, be insolvent.

122. Receipt of loans, grants etc

- (1) Subject to the provisions of its bye-laws a co-operative society may receive loans, grants and donated capital from persons or institutions that are not members of the co-operative society for the purpose of meeting any of its obligations or discharging any of its functions under this Act.
- (2) A co-operative society may by mortgage or in any other manner it deems appropriate, guarantee the repayment of any sums received by it under subsection (1).

123. Receipt of deposits from minors

- (1) A co-operative society may receive deposits from a minor and pay to the minor the deposit together with the interest accrued thereon.
- (2) Any deposit made on behalf of a minor may, together with any interest accrued thereon, be paid to the parent of the minor or, where the minor is under the care of a guardian, to that guardian for the use of the minor.
- (3) The receipt of a minor or his parent or guardian for money received under this section shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of the co-operative society in respect of that money.
- (4) Where a person under a legal disability, other than minority, is entitled to receive money from a co-operative society the money may be paid by the co-operative society to the Registrar of the High Court to the credit of the person under that disability, and the receipt of the Registrar of the High Court or of the person under disability shall be good and sufficient discharge of the liability of the co-operative society to pay that money.

- (5) The Registrar of the High Court shall pay or apply the money to or for the care, maintenance, education or benefit of the person under disability.

124. Allocation of surplus and capital adequacy

- (1) The value of the qualifying shares and equity shares owned by members of a cooperative society shall not fall below the equivalent of ten percent of the asset worth of the cooperative society as a result of any redemption of shares.
- (2) Where a co-operative society realises a surplus in a financial year, before it allocates among or credits to members the surplus, the directors—
- (a) shall use any part of the surplus that the co-operative society requires to refund all or any part of any deficit it has previously incurred;
 - (b) shall establish and maintain a reserve to be known as its statutory reserves; and
 - (c) may provide, out of any surplus remaining after paragraphs (a) and (b) have been complied with, in the manner set out in its bye-laws for payment of dividends on members' equity shares.
- (3) The statutory reserves required by subsection (1)(b) shall be part of the institutional capital of the co-operative society and may, subject to the approval of the Registrar, be used in the business of the co-operative society including unforeseen losses, capital retention, financing of non-earning assets, repairs and maintenance and the avoidance of external borrowing.
- (4) A co-operative society shall ensure that its institutional capital is at no stage less than seven per cent of its total assets and that the aggregate of its capital base is at no stage less than ten per cent of its total assets or other proportions as may be determined by the Registrar from time to time..
- (5) Where at the end of any financial year the amount standing to institutional capital before any transfer under this section is less than seven per cent of total assets, the co-operative society shall transfer to statutory reserves for that year not less than twenty per cent of its surplus or such lesser sum as may be required to increase the institutional capital to seven per cent of total assets.
- (5) Where at the end of any financial year the amount standing to institutional capital before any transfer under this section is more than seven per cent of total assets, the co-operative society may not make any transfer to statutory reserves
- (6) The Registrar shall grant a specified period of time as the Registrar considers reasonable to enable management to make good any deficiency in the adequacy of its institutional capital and total capital base.
- (7) The Registrar shall grant a specified period of time as the Registrar considers reasonable to enable management to make good any deficiency in the adequacy of its institutional capital and total capital base.
- (8) A credit union shall not capitalise its statutory reserves by way of bonus shares or distribute it by way of dividends.
- (9) Whenever the Board of a credit union so recommend to the members and a majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting by resolution so approve-

- (a) the allocation to its statutory reserves may be increased; or
- (b) where its statutory reserves at the end of the financial year in question equals or exceeds ten per cent of assets, the allocation may be reduced.

125. Development fund

- (1) A co-operative society shall establish and maintain a development fund, which may include any existing education fund or educational reserve.
- (2) A co-operative society that realises a surplus from its operations as ascertained by the annual audit shall make the annual contribution to its development fund as determined by the apex body not exceeding ten per cent of that surplus, and the fund shall be used for strengthening the capacity and growth of co-operative societies and for human resource development.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a co-operative society's development fund shall be administered in whole in part by the apex body in accordance with its bye-laws.
- (4) Where an apex body has not been established or is not functioning, the development fund shall be administered by the person or body of persons as the Registrar may determine, with the approval of the active co-operative societies.

126. Pension fund

- (1) A co-operative society may establish a contributory pension fund for its employees and may contribute to the fund.
- (2) A pension fund established under subsection (1) shall not be considered part of the assets of the co-operative society and shall be invested in the manner prescribed by the applicable pension legislation.

127. Charitable contributions

After making the prescribed payments to its statutory reserve and development fund a co-operative society may contribute to any non-profit, charitable, benevolent, community, co-operative or cultural improvement purpose.

128. Dividend or bonus

- (1) Subject to this section and sections 124 and 125, any surplus may be distributed by way of dividend or bonus amongst its members in proportion to their business with the co-operative society at the rate as may be determined.
- (2) A co-operative society shall not—
 - (a) declare or pay a dividend or bonus or distribute any part of its accumulated funds before the financial statements have been certified by a qualified auditor;
 - (b) pay a dividend or make any payment on account out of profits until its capital base has reached a proportion of not less than ten per cent of the total assets of the co-operative society or other proportions as may be determined by the Registrar, provided that at all times its institutional capital shall not be less than seven percent of total assets; or
 - (c) declare or pay a dividend from unrealised gains including stock grants or share grants or gains arising from asset revaluation.

- (3) A bonus based on wages or on the value of the products of a member or a bonus or patronage rebate calculated in proportion to the amount of the business done by each member with the co-operative society may be distributed periodically to the members from surplus funds after the deduction of all expenditure and after and making allocation to the statutory reserves.

PART VIII

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND AUDIT

129. Annual financial statement

- (1) The directors of a co-operative society shall place before the members at every annual meeting of members—
 - (a) comparative financial statements relating separately to—
 - (i) the period that began on the date the co-operative society came into existence and ended not more than twelve months after that date, or, if the co-operative society has completed a financial year, the period that began immediately after the end of the last period for which financial statements were prepared and ended not more than twelve months after the beginning of that period; and
 - (ii) the immediately preceding financial year;
 - (b) the report of the auditor; and
 - (c) any further information respecting the financial position of the co-operative society and the results of its operations required by the bye-laws.
- (2) The financial statements mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(ii) may be omitted if the reason for the omission is set out in the financial statement to be placed before the members or in a note attached thereto.
- (3) The financial statements referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall include the balance sheet and detailed profit and loss accounts in respect of all business transacted by the co-operative society in the financial years covered by the statements, prepared in accordance with international accounting standards and including consolidated balance sheets and profit and loss accounts in any case where the co-operative society has subsidiaries or associated companies.

130. Approval of financial statements

- (1) The directors of a co-operative society shall approve the financial statements referred to in section 129, and the approval shall be acknowledged by the signature of two or more directors.
- (2) A co-operative society shall not issue, publish or circulate copies of the financial statements referred to in section 129 unless the financial statements are—
 - (a) approved and signed in accordance with subsection (1); and
 - (b) accompanied by an auditor's report from the co-operative society's auditor.
- (3) A co-operative society shall send to the Registrar a copy of the financial statements, auditor's report and management letter within ten days prior to the annual general meeting of the co-operative society.

131. Providing financial statements

- (1) Not less than ten days before each annual meeting of members, a co-operative society shall make available to each member a copy the financial statements and report of the auditor referred to in section 129.
- (2) Where a co-operative society applies to the Registrar and the Registrar is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for noncompliance, the Registrar may excuse the co-operative society from complying with subsection (1).

132. Auditor's qualifications

Subject to section 133, a co-operative society's auditor shall be a member of a recognised professional body satisfactory to the Registrar and qualified to conduct audits.

133. Independence of auditor

- (1) An individual shall not be qualified to be an auditor of a co-operative society if he is not independent of the co-operative society and its member co-operative societies, and of the directors and officers of the co-operative society and its member co-operative societies.
- (2) For the purposes of this section whether or not an individual is independent is a question of fact to be determined having regard to all the circumstances.
- (3) An individual shall be presumed not to be independent of a co-operative society if he or his business partner—
 - (a) is a member, a director, an officer or an employee of the co-operative society or any of its member co-operative societies or a business partner or employee of any director, officer, member of employee of any such co-operative society, or its member co-operative societies;
 - (b) is a member of a credit committee or any other committee of the co-operative society or any of its member co-operative societies;
 - (c) transacts a substantial amount of business with the co-operative society or any of its member co-operative societies.
 - (d) a chief executive officer, chief financial officer, chief accounting officer, or any person serving in an equivalent position for the co-operative society was employed by that individual and participated in any capacity in the audit of that co-operative society during the one year period preceding the date of the initiation of the audit; or
 - (e) provides to the co-operative society contemporaneously with the audit, any non-audit service including—
 - (i) bookkeeping or other services relating to the accounting records or financial statements of the co-operative society;
 - (ii) financial information systems design and implementation;
 - (iii) appraisal or valuation services, fairness opinions, or contributions-in-kind reports;
 - (iv) actuarial services;
 - (v) internal audit outsourcing services;
 - (vi) management functions or human resources;
 - (vii) broker, dealer or investment adviser services;
 - (viii) legal and related services unrelated to the audit; or

- (ix) any other service that the Registrar determines impinges on his independence.
- (4) The provision of professional advice by or on behalf of an individual or his business partner shall not by itself deprive an individual or his business partner of independence for the purposes of this section.
- (5) An auditor who becomes disqualified under this section or has been replaced or whose term has expired shall immediately notify the Registrar in writing and state the reasons for the termination of his appointment.
- (6) A member of a co-operative society may apply to the Registrar for an order or the Registrar may, upon his own motion, make an order declaring an auditor disqualified under this section and the office of auditor vacant.

134. Appointment of auditor

- (1) Subject to subsection (4), the members of a co-operative society shall—
 - (a) at the first general meeting, appoint an auditor to hold office until the close of the first annual general meeting; and
 - (b) at each annual meeting, appoint an auditor to hold office until the close of the next annual general meeting.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(b), where an auditor is not appointed at an annual meeting, the incumbent auditor shall continue in office until his successor is appointed at a subsequent meeting.
- (3) The remuneration of an auditor shall be specified by the Board.
- (4) An individual shall not accept appointment, consent to be appointed or be appointed as auditor of a co-operative society if he is replacing an auditor who has resigned, been removed or whose term of office has expired or is about to expire, until the individual has requested or received from the former auditor a written statement of the circumstances and reasons why, in the auditor's opinion, the auditor is to be replaced.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), an individual otherwise qualified may accept appointment or consent to be appointed as auditor of a co-operative society where, within twenty-one days of making the request referred to in that subsection, the individual does not receive a reply to it.
- (6) An auditor shall not assume office unless he has confirmed in writing to the co-operative society his willingness to serve as auditor.

135. Cessation of office

- (1) An auditor of a co-operative society ceases to hold office when he—
 - (a) resigns by giving written notice to the co-operative society;
 - (b) is removed under section 136; or
 - (c) has held the office for five consecutive years.
- (2) The resignation of an auditor shall become effective at the time his written resignation is received at the co-operative society or at the time specified in the resignation letter.
- (3) The cooperative society shall notify the Registrar in writing of the resignation of an auditor under subsection (1) within seven days of receipt of the notice.

136. Removal of auditor

The members of a co-operative society may, by ordinary resolution at a special meeting remove an auditor other than an auditor appointed by the Registrar under section 138.

137. Filling vacancy of auditor

- (1) Subject to subsection (4), the directors shall immediately fill a vacancy in the office of auditor.
- (2) Where there is not a quorum of directors, the directors then in office shall, within twenty-one days after a vacancy in the office of auditor occurs, call a special meeting of members to fill the vacancy.
- (3) Where the directors fail to call a meeting under subsection (2) or where there are no directors, a meeting for the purpose of filling a vacancy in the office of auditor may be called by any member.
- (4) The bye-laws of a co-operative society may provide that a vacancy in the office of auditor be filled only by vote of the members.
- (5) An auditor appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

138. Auditor appointed by Registrar

Where a co-operative society does not have an auditor, the Registrar may, upon the Registrar's own motion or upon the application of a member, appoint an auditor and specify the remuneration of the appointee, and the auditor shall, subject to section 133, hold office until an auditor is appointed under section 134.

139. Auditor's right to notice

The auditor of a co-operative society is entitled to receive notice of every annual general meeting of the co-operative society, and to be heard in presenting his report at the meeting.

140. Required notice

If a member of a co-operative society who is entitled to vote at a meeting of members, or a director of a co-operative society, gives written notice to the auditor or a former auditor of the co-operative society, not less than ten days before a meeting of members of the co-operative society, to attend the meeting, the auditor or former auditor shall attend the meeting at the expense of the co-operative society and answer questions relating to his duties as an auditor or former auditor.

141. Auditor's right to comment

- (1) An auditor who—
 - (a) resigns;
 - (b) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of members called for the purpose of removing him from office; or
 - (c) receives a notice or otherwise learns of a meeting of members or directors at which another person is to be appointed to fill the office of auditor, whether because of the resignation or removal of the incumbent auditor or because the auditor's term of office has expired or is about to expire, may submit to the co-operative society and to the Registrar a written statement giving the reason for his resignation or the reasons why he opposes any proposed action.

- (2) When it receives a statement referred to in subsection (1), the co-operative society shall immediately send a copy of the statement to every member entitled to receive notice of any meeting of members and to the Registrar.

142. Examination by auditor

- (1) The auditor of a society shall examine its books and records and shall make a report upon the annual financial statements and financial position to be placed before the members, and in every report the auditor shall state whether in the auditor's opinion the balance sheet and income and expenditure account give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the society and of its operation for the period then ended and submit any additional information in relation to the audit of the society as the Board or the Registrar considers necessary.
- (2) It shall also be the duty of the auditor to certify whether the appropriate measures to counter money laundering and other suspicious transactions are in place.

143. Auditor's right to inspect

143(1) Upon the demand of an auditor of a co-operative society the present or former directors, officers, employees or agents of the co-operative society shall provide to the auditor—

- (a) any information and explanation; and
- (b) access to records, documents, books, accounts and vouchers of the co-operative society, as are in the opinion of the auditor is necessary to enable him to make the examination and report required under section 142 which the directors, officers, employees or agents are reasonably able to provide.

- (2) Upon the demand of the auditor of a co-operative society, the directors of the co-operative society shall—
 - (a) obtain from the present or former directors, officers, employees or agents of any member of the co-operative society, the information and explanations that the directors, officers, employees and agents are reasonably able to provide and that are, in the opinion of the auditor, necessary to enable the auditor to make the examination and report required under section 142; and
 - (b) provide the information and explanations so obtained to the auditor.
- (3) A former or present director, committee member, employee or agent of any member of a co-operative society, shall not take any action to influence, coerce, manipulate or mislead an auditor in the performance of an audit of the financial statements of a co-operative society.
- (4) A former director, officer, employee or agent of a member who contravenes subsection (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in the case of a-

- (a) first offence to a fine not exceeding twenty five thousand dollars or to three months imprisonment or both; and
- (b) subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding forty thousand dollars or to one year imprisonment or both.

144. Error or misstatement

- (1) A director or an officer of a co-operative society shall forthwith notify the co-operative society's auditor of any error or misstatement of which the director or officer becomes aware of in a financial statement upon which the auditor or former auditor has reported.
- (2) When the auditor or a former auditor of a co-operative society is notified or becomes aware of an error or misstatement in a financial statement upon which he has reported to the co-operative society and in his opinion, the error or misstatement is material, he shall inform each director of the co-operative society accordingly.
- (3) When under subsection (2) the auditor or a former auditor of a co-operative society informs the directors of an error or misstatement in a financial statement of the co-operative society, the directors shall—
 - (a) prepare and issue revised financial statements; or
 - (b) otherwise inform the members and the Registrar of the error or misstatement.

145. Privilege of auditor

An auditor shall not be liable to any person in an action for defamation based on any act done or not done, or any statement made by him in good faith in connection with any matter he is authorised or required to do under this Act.

146. Annual, monthly and special returns

- (1) Not less than ten days, or any shorter period as the Registrar may allow, before the date of its annual meeting a co-operative society shall—
 - (a) file with the Registrar an annual return for the previous year; and
 - (b) provide the Registrar with a copy of the financial statement to be placed before its members at its next annual meeting.
- (2) Within thirty days of the end of each month, a co-operative society shall file a monthly return with the Registrar in accordance with regulations made under this Act.
- (3) The Registrar may, by notice in writing, require a co-operative society, director or officer of a co-operative society to make a special return on any subject connected with the business and affairs of the co-operative society including risk focused information, prudential reports, quarterly reports of large credit exposures, non-performing loans, investments, assets and liabilities and variance reports.
- (4) Where the Registrar requests a special return under subsection (3), the Registrar shall specify in the notice a time within which the special return is to be made.

PART IX

RECONSTRUCTION OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

147 Methods of reconstruction

- (1) The reconstruction of a co-operative society is subject to the approval of the Registrar and may be effected by—
 - (a) the amalgamation of one co-operative society with another co-operative society to form a single co-operative society;
 - (b) the transfer of the assets and liabilities of one co-operative society to another co-operative society; or
 - (c) the division of a co-operative society into two or more co-operative societies.
- (2) Sections 150 to 153 shall have effect with respect to the procedure that shall be followed in relation to subsection (1).

148. Conversion

- (1) A company registered under the Companies Act RSA c. C65 or a registered industrial, provident or friendly society may, by special resolution, determine to convert itself into a co-operative society.
- (2) A special resolution for conversion into a co-operative society under subsection (1) shall appoint ten members of the company or the industrial, provident or friendly society who together with the secretary, shall sign the proposed bye-laws and who may, by resolution, be given power to act on behalf of the company or the industrial, provident or friendly co-operative society as may be specified in the resolution.
- (3) A copy of the special resolution referred to in subsection (1) with three copies of the bye-laws shall be sent to the Registrar who may upon receipt register the co-operative society and issue a certificate in accordance with section 15.

149. Effect of certificate of registration

- (1) On the date of the certificate of registration issued under section 15—
 - (a) the incorporation or registration under any other enactment of the company or the industrial, provident or friendly society shall cease and shall be cancelled by the proper officer;
 - (b) the conversion of the company or the industrial, provident or friendly society shall be effective;
 - (c) the property of the company or the industrial, provident or friendly society shall become the property of the co-operative society;
 - (d) the co-operative society shall be liable for the obligations of the company or the industrial, provident or friendly society;
 - (e) an existing cause of action, claim or liability or prosecution against the company or the industrial, provident or friendly society shall not be affected;
 - (f) a civil, criminal or administrative action pending against a converted company or an industrial, provident or friendly society may be continued against the registered co-operative society; and

- (g) a conviction against or a ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against a company or the industrial, provident or friendly society may be enforced by or against the registered co-operative society.
- (2) An obligation or penalty arising under any of the matters mentioned in subsection (1) for which the former company, or industrial, provident or friendly society is liable or potentially liable at the date of the certificate of registration issued under section 15 shall have priority as against the property of the registered co-operative society over all other rights or claims against, or liabilities of the registered co-operative society.

150. Amalgamation of co-operative societies

- (1) Any two or more co-operative societies may, by a resolution passed by not less than three-fourths of all the members of each co-operative society present and voting at a special general meeting called for the purpose, amalgamate as one co-operative society.
- (2) Where a resolution referred to in subsection (1) is passed, each co-operative society shall apply to the Registrar for cancellation of its registration and the co-operative societies shall jointly make application for the registration of the amalgamated co-operative society.
- (3) The registration of the amalgamated co-operative society shall be sufficient to vest the assets and liabilities of the amalgamating co-operative societies in the amalgamated co-operative society.

151. Transfer of assets of co-operative societies

- (1) Any co-operative society may, by resolution passed by not less than three-fourths of all the members present and voting at a special general meeting called for the purpose, agree to transfer its assets and liabilities to any other co-operative society which has agreed to accept them.
- (2) The acceptance of that other co-operative society shall be by a resolution passed by not less than three-fourths of the members of that other co-operative society present and voting at a special general meeting called for the purpose.
- (3) On the passing of the resolutions referred to in subsections (1) and (2), the transferor co-operative society shall apply to the Registrar for cancellation of its registration and the transferee co-operative society shall submit to the Registrar a copy of the transferee co-operative society's resolution agreeing to the transfer.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the cancellation of registration and the submission of the resolution agreeing to accept the transfer shall be sufficient to vest the assets and liabilities of the transferor to the transferee.
- (5) Where the vesting of the assets of a co-operative society involves real estate, a copy of the resolution referred to in subsection (1), certified as such by the Registrar and the resolution shall be recorded at the Land Registry and the Registrar of Lands shall transfer the real property accordingly..

152. Claims of objecting creditors

Notwithstanding sections 150 and 151 an amalgamation or transfer shall not be effected unless the creditors of the co-operative societies concerned are given three months' written notice of the proposal and have signified that they have no objections.

153. Division of co-operative society

- (1) A co-operative society may, by resolution in this section referred to as a “preliminary resolution” passed by three-fourths of the members present and voting at a special general meeting called for the purpose, resolve to divide itself into two or more co-operative societies.
- (2) A preliminary resolution—
 - (a) shall contain proposals for the division of the assets and liabilities of the co-operative society among the new co-operative societies into which it is proposed to divide the co-operative society; and
 - (b) may specify the area of operation of, and the members who will constitute, each of the new co-operative societies.
- (3) A copy of the preliminary resolution shall be sent to the Registrar and all members and creditors of the co-operative society that is being divided.
- (4) At least ten days notice of the preliminary resolution shall be given to any person whose interest will be affected by the division of the co-operative society by publishing the notice in the Gazette and in at least two issues of a newspaper published and circulated in Anguilla.
- (5) A member of a co-operative society may, notwithstanding any bye-law to the contrary, by notice given to the co-operative society within a period of three months from his receipt of the preliminary resolution, state his intention not to become a member of any of the new co-operative societies.
- (6) A creditor of the co-operative society may, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, by notice given to the co-operative society within a period of three months from his receipt of the preliminary resolution, state his intention to demand the payment of moneys due him.
- (7) Any person, other than a member or creditor, whose interest may be affected by the division of a co-operative society may, by notice given to the co-operative society, object to the division unless his claim is satisfied.
- (8) After the expiry of three months from the receipt of the preliminary resolution by all the members and creditors of the co-operative society and of the notice to other person given under subsection (4), another special general meeting of the co-operative society, of which at least fifteen days notice shall be given to its members, shall be convened for the consideration of the preliminary resolution.
- (9) Where at the special general meeting referred to in subsection (8) the preliminary resolution is confirmed by a special resolution either without changes or with changes as in the opinion of the Registrar are not material, the Registrar may, subject to subsection (11) and section 15, register the new co-operative societies; and upon registration, the original co-operative society shall be taken to be dissolved and its registration cancelled.
- (10) The decision of the Registrar as to whether any changes made in the preliminary resolution are material shall be final and not subject to any appeal.
- (11) At the special general meeting referred to in subsections (8) and (9) provision shall be made by another resolution for the-

- (a) repayment of the share capital of all the members who have given notice under subsection (5);
- (b) satisfaction of the claims of all the creditors who have given notice under subsection (6); and
- (c) satisfaction of the claims of such of the other persons, who have given notice under subsection (7), but no member or creditor or other person shall be entitled to any repayment or satisfaction until the preliminary resolution is confirmed in accordance with subsection (9).

(12) Where within the time specified as the Registrar considers reasonable the-

- (a) share capital of the members referred to in subsection (11)(a) is not repaid;
- (b) claims of the creditors referred to in subsection (11)(b) are not satisfied; or
- (c) claims of the other persons mentioned in subsection (11)(c) are not satisfied or secured, the Registrar may refuse to register the new co-operative societies.

154. Effect of registration of new co-operative societies

The registration of new co-operative societies established under section 153 is sufficient to vest the assets and liabilities of the original co-operative society in the manner specified in the preliminary resolution as confirmed in accordance with section 153(8) and (9).

PART X

RECEIVERS AND RECEIVER-MANAGERS

155. Appointment of receiver or receiver-manager

(1) Where, in the opinion of the Registrar or the High Court, based on the results of an examination undertaken under section 185, it is necessary to appoint a receiver or a receiver-manager to protect the equity of the members, the Registrar or the Court may appoint a receiver or a receiver-manager.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal against the appointment of a receiver or receiver manager by the Registrar or the High Court within fourteen days of the appointment.

156. Functions of receiver

(1) Subject to the rights of secured creditors, a receiver of any property of a co-operative society may—

- (a) receive the income from the property and pay the liabilities connected with the property; and
- (b) realise the security interest of those on whose behalf the receiver is appointed.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and subject to any order that the Court may make under section 160, a receiver who is not appointed as manager of a co-operative society shall not carry on the business of the co-operative society.

157. Functions of receiver-manager

Where a receiver of a co-operative society is also appointed manager of the co-operative society, the receiver may carry on any business of the co-operative society to protect the equity of the members. A receiver or receiver-manager appointed by a Court or the Registrar shall be discharged by the Court or Registrar where in the opinion of the Court or Registrar the equity of the members has been sufficiently protected as to enable the society to be returned to its members.

158. Cessation of Board's powers

Where a receiver or receiver-manager is appointed by a Court or the Registrar the directors of the co-operative society shall not exercise any directors' powers that the receiver or receiver-manager is authorised to exercise until the receiver or receiver-manager is discharged.

159. Duty of receiver or receiver-manager

- (1) A receiver or receiver-manager appointed by a Court shall act in accordance with any directions of the Court.
- (2) A receiver or receiver-manager appointed by the Registrar shall act in accordance with any directions of the Registrar.
- (3) A receiver or receiver-manager shall—
 - (a) act honestly and in good faith, and
 - (b) deal with any property of the co-operative society in his possession or control in a commercially reasonable manner.

160. Directions by court

Upon an application by a receiver or a receiver-manager of a co-operative society, whether appointed by the Court or the Registrar, the Court may make any order it thinks fit, on any matter including—

- (a) appointing, replacing or discharging a receiver or receiver-manager and approving his accounts;
- (b) determining the notice to be given to any person or dispensing with notice to any person;
- (c) fixing the remuneration of the receiver or receiver-manager;
- (d) requiring the receiver or receiver-manager to—
 - (i) make good any default in connection with his custody or management of the property and business of the co-operative society; and
 - (ii) relieve the receiver or receiver-manager from any default on any terms that the court considers appropriate;
- (e) confirming any act of the receiver or receiver-manager; and
- (f) giving directions on any other matter relating to the duties of the receiver or receiver manager.

161. Directions by Registrar

- (1) Where a receiver or a receiver-manager is appointed by the Registrar, the receiver or receiver-manager may apply to the Registrar for directions on any matter relating to his duties.
- (2) Where the Registrar receives an application under subsection (1), he may make any order he considers appropriate including any order specified in section 160(c) to (f).

162. Required actions of receiver

A receiver or receiver-manager shall—

- (a) in the case of a receiver or receiver-manager appointed by the Court, immediately notify the Registrar of his appointment or discharge;
- (b) take into his custody and control the property of the co-operative society in accordance with the Court order or the order of the Registrar under which he is appointed;
- (c) open and maintain a bank account in his name as receiver or receiver-manager of the co-operative society for the moneys of the co-operative society coming under his control;
- (d) keep detailed accounts of all transactions carried out by him as receiver or receiver-manager;
- (e) keep accounts of his administration that shall be available during usual business hours for inspection by the directors of the co-operative society, the Registrar or any person authorised by the Registrar;
- (f) prepare at least once in every six-month after the date of his appointment financial statements of his administration, as far as is practicable in the form required in section 129;
- (g) on completion of his duties, render a final account of his administration in the form he has adopted for preparation of interim accounts under paragraph (f); and
- (h) file with the Registrar a copy of any financial statement mentioned in paragraph (f) and any final account mentioned in paragraph (g) within fifteen days of the preparation of the financial statement or rendering of the final account.

PART XI

DISSOLUTION

163. Dissolution by members

- (1) Subject to the approval of the Registrar, the members of a co-operative society may authorise the dissolution of the co-operative society.
- (2) The Board shall cause a notice of a special meeting of members to be sent in the manner prescribed in section 45 to each member for the purpose of authorising dissolution.
- (3) Each member of the co-operative society has the right to vote with respect to a dissolution.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (1) dissolution is authorised when the members approve the dissolution by a special resolution of the membership.

- (5) Where the Registrar—
- (a) receives notice, in a form satisfactory to him, of an authorisation to dissolve a co-operative society; and
 - (b) is satisfied that it is in the best interest of the co-operative society and its members,
- the Registrar shall approve the dissolution.
- (6) The authorisation approved under subsection (4) shall set out the—
- (a) assets and liabilities of the co-operative society;
 - (b) claims of any creditors;
 - (c) number of members; and
 - (d) nature and extent of the members' interest in the co-operative society.
- (7) Subject to subsection (9), where a co-operative society has an unallocated surplus and the authorisation approved under subsection (4) states that it is not to be paid out at the time of the co-operative society's dissolution, the unallocated surplus shall be paid to one or more trustees who are—
- (a) named in the special resolution; or
 - (b) where not named in the special resolution are appointed by the Registrar.
- (8) The trustees named or appointed under subsection (7) shall—
- (a) deposit the money in a special trust account in—
 - (i) a co-operative society; or
 - (ii) any financial institution licensed under the Banking Act, 2015 or any company registered under the Insurance Act RSA c. I16; or
 - (b) invest the money in—
 - (i) securities issued by the Government;
 - (ii) securities the payment of interest on which is guaranteed by the government;
 - or
 - (iii) any other manner authorised by the Registrar.
- (9) Where a trust is created under subsection (7), the income and principal of the trust shall be expended within a period of twenty years from the date that the trust was established for any cooperative purpose the Registrar considers fit.
- (10) In this section—
- (a) "interest" includes the interest of a member in a co-operative society and includes member loans and obligations of any kind that—
 - (i) arise by virtue of the bye-laws of the co-operative society; and
 - (ii) are owed by the co-operative society to the any member; and
 - (b) "unallocated surplus" includes any net proceeds from the sale of assets on dissolution of the co-operative society after the liabilities of the co-operative society and the claims of creditors and members have been satisfied.

164. Notice of dissolution by members

- (1) When the Registrar approves a special resolution passed under section 163, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the co-operative society, cause a notice of the special resolution to be published—

- (a) in the Gazette; and
 - (b) once a week for two weeks in a newspaper published and circulated in Anguilla.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where the Registrar receives an affidavit from the officers of a co-operative society stating that the co-operative society has no assets and no liabilities and the Registrar is satisfied that the affidavit was duly sworn, the Registrar may-
- (a) exempt the co-operative society from subsection (1); and
 - (b) cause, at the Registrar's expense, a notice of the special resolution passed under section 163(1) to be published in the Gazette.
- (3) The Registrar shall require from a co-operative society, liquidator or trustee appointed by a co-operative society or any other person who is required to provide information, an annual or other return showing-
- (a) the progress of the dissolution;
 - (b) the distribution of any undistributed surplus or reserve;
 - (c) the progress of the administration of any trust established under this section; and
 - (d) any other information that he may require.

165. Dissolution by Registrar

- (1) Where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that a co-operative society has not-
- (a) commenced business within twelve months after the date shown on its certificate of registration; or
 - (b) carried on business for twelve consecutive months ,
- the Registrar shall send to the secretary of the co-operative society a letter inquiring whether the co-operative society is carrying on business, is in operation or will be submitting an annual return.
- (2) Where the Registrar does not, within one month of the date it sent a letter under subsection (1), receive an answer to the letter, the Registrar shall, within fourteen days after the expiry of the month, send to the secretary of the co-operative society a letter referring to the letter sent under subsection (1) stating that—
- (a) no answer to that letter has been received by the Registrar; and
 - (b) if an answer is not received to the letter sent under this subsection within one month from the date it is sent, a notice will be published in the Gazette to strike the name of the co-operative society off the Register and to dissolve the co-operative society.
- (3) Where the Registrar—
- (a) receives an answer from a co-operative society that it is not carrying on business or is not in operation or will not be submitting an annual return; or
 - (b) does not, within one month after the date that the Registrar sent a letter under subsection (2), receive an answer to that letter, the Registrar shall publish in the Gazette and send to the co-operative society a notice that, at the expiry of one month from the date of that notice, the co-operative society will, unless cause is shown to the contrary, be struck off the register and the co-operative society will be dissolved.

- (4) At the expiry of the period specified in a notice sent under subsection (3), the Registrar shall, unless cause to the contrary is shown by the co-operative society—
 - (a) where the Registrar is satisfied that the co-operative society has no assets or liabilities, issue a certificate of dissolution in the prescribed form; or
 - (b) appoint a liquidator to dissolve the co-operative society.

166. Dissolution for failure to account for business transacted

- (1) Where a co-operative society fails to provide a copy of the annual financial statements to its members at an annual or special meeting called for that purpose or within a period of twelve months after the close of its financial year, the Registrar—
 - (a) may require the directors to call a special meeting of the co-operative society for the purpose of considering the business transacted during the preceding financial year and to provide to the members and to the Registrar a copy of the annual financial statement; and
 - (b) shall specify a time period within which the special meeting is to be called.
- (2) Where the directors fail to call a special meeting within the time period specified under subsection (1), the Registrar shall call the special meeting to—
 - (a) review the financial position of the co-operative society and the members' interests therein; and
 - (b) ascertain whether the members wish to continue the business of the co-operative society and shall comply with sections 129 and 131.
- (3) Where-
 - (a) a quorum of members is not present at a special meeting called under subsection (2); or
 - (b) the members fail to pass a resolution to the effect that the co-operative society will be carrying on business and shall comply with section 129 and 131,the Registrar shall notify the directors that, unless sections 129 and 131 are complied with within one month from the date of the notice, the co-operative society will be struck off the register and dissolved.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Registrar may extend the period for compliance with sections 129 and 131.
- (5) Where a co-operative society does not comply with sections 129 and 131 within the period specified in subsection (3) or extended by the Registrar under subsection (4) the Registrar shall-
 - (a) where the Registrar is satisfied that the co-operative society has no assets or liabilities, issue a certificate of dissolution in the prescribed form; or
 - (b) appoint a liquidator to dissolve the co-operative society.

167. Dissolution by Court

- (1) The Registrar or a person with a legitimate interest may, after giving the co-operative society ten days notice apply to the Court for an order dissolving a co-operative society where the co-operative society-
 - (a) obtained its registration by fraud or mistake;
 - (b) exists for an illegal purpose;
 - (c) has continued to violate any of the provisions of this Act or its bye-laws after notice of the violation by the Registrar;
 - (d) is no longer operating on co-operative principles; or
 - (e) has the number of its members reduced below the minimum number required by this Act in respect of that type of co-operative society.
- (2) Where a person with a legitimate interest applies under this section, he shall also give the Registrar notice of the application and the Registrar shall be entitled to appear, be heard and represented by an attorney-at-law.
- (3) Where the Court receives an application under this section, the Court may order that the co-operative society be dissolved or liquidated and a dissolution may be ordered under the supervision of the Registrar.
- (4) Where the Registrar receives an order made under subsection (3), the Registrar shall where the-
 - (a) order is to dissolve the co-operative society, issue a certificate of dissolution in the prescribed form; or
 - (b) order is to liquidate and dissolve the co-operative society under the supervision of the Registrar proceed to liquidation and publish a notice to that effect in the Gazette.

168. Revival of dissolved co-operative society

- (1) Where a co-operative society has been dissolved under this Part, any person with a legitimate interest may apply to the Registrar to have the co-operative society revived by submitting to the Registrar-
 - (a) an application for revival in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) any other information the Registrar may require.
- (2) Where the Registrar receives an application for revival under subsection (1) and the Registrar is satisfied that the co-operative society is in compliance with this Act, the Registrar shall-
 - (a) issue a certificate of revival in the prescribed form and publish notice of the revival in the Gazette; and
 - (b) impose any condition on the co-operative society that he considers reasonable with respect to the co-operative society.
- (3) A co-operative society is revived on the date shown in the certificate of revival.
- (4) Where a co-operative society is revived under this section it shall-
 - (a) have all the rights and privileges; and
 - (b) be liable for the obligations, that it would have had if it had not been dissolved, subject to any terms that may be imposed by the Registrar and to any right acquired by any person after its dissolution.

169. Appointment of liquidator

(1) Where-

- (a) a co-operative society is to be dissolved under this Part; or
- (b) no liquidator is appointed by the members or the Court;

the Registrar shall appoint a liquidator to wind up the affairs of the co-operative society.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) where the Registrar is satisfied that the co-operative society has no assets and liabilities, he may proceed to issue a certificate of dissolution in the prescribed form.

170. Commencement of liquidation

The liquidation of a co-operative society commences where-

- (a) a special resolution for dissolution of the co-operative society is approved by the Registrar under section 163;
- (b) the Registrar appoints a liquidator under section 165 or 166;
- (c) the Court makes an order to dissolve under section 167; or
- (d) the registration of a co-operative society is cancelled by the Registrar under section 22.

171. Cessation of business

(1) From the date of the commencement of its liquidation-

- (a) a co-operative society continues in existence, but shall cease to carry on its business except insofar as may be required, in the opinion of the liquidator, for an orderly liquidation; and
- (b) any transfer of shares, other than a transfer made to or with the approval of the liquidator, and any alteration in the status of the members made after commencement of the liquidation shall be void.

172. General provisions respecting liquidators

(1) Where two or more liquidators are appointed, all the provisions in this section with respect to a liquidator apply to all of the liquidators.

(2) On the appointment of a liquidator under this Part, all the powers of the directors vest in the liquidator.

(3) A liquidator may delegate any of the powers vested in him under subsection (2) to any director or member.

(4) Where the members of a co-operative society appoint a liquidator, they may, at that time or at a subsequent general meeting, pass a resolution giving direction to the liquidator with respect to the disposal of the property of the co-operative society.

(5) Where-

- (a) the members appoint a liquidator and do not issue direction under subsection (4); or

- (b) a liquidator is not appointed by the members, the liquidator is subject to the directions, orders and instructions of the Registrar with respect to the mode and terms and conditions on which the liquidator may dispose of the whole or any part of the property of the co-operative society.
- (6) Where a vacancy in the office of liquidator occurs, the Registrar may appoint another person to fill the vacancy.
- (7) The power of the Registrar under subsections 5 and 6 is subject to any order made by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (8) In all proceedings connected with the co-operative society, the liquidator is to be described as the liquidator of the co-operative society and not by his individual name only.

173. Duties of liquidator

On his appointment a liquidator shall-

- (a) immediately give notice of his appointment-
 - (i) in the case of a liquidator not appointed by the Registrar, to the Registrar; and
 - (ii) to each claimant and creditor known to the liquidator;
- (b) immediately publish notice of his appointment in the Gazette and once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published and circulated in Anguilla;
- (c) set out in the notice mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) a provision requiring any person—
 - (i) indebted to the co-operative society, to render an account and pay to the liquidator the amount due at the time and place specified;
 - (ii) possessing property of the co-operative society, to deliver it to the liquidator at the time and place specified; and
 - (iii) having a claim against the co-operative society, whether liquidated, unliquidated, future or contingent, to submit particulars of the claim in writing to the liquidator not later than two months after the first publication of the notice;
- (d) take into his custody and control the property of the co-operative society;
- (e) open and maintain a trust account for the monies of the co-operative society;
- (f) maintain separate lists of the members, creditors and other person having claims against the co-operative society;
- (g) where at any time the liquidator determines that the co-operative society is unable to pay or adequately provide for the discharge of its obligations, apply to the Registrar for directions; and
- (h) deliver to the Registrar and the co-operative society, at least once in every twelve-month period after his appointment or more often as the Registrar may require, financial statements of the co-operative society in the form required in section 129 or in any form that the Registrar may require.

174. Powers of liquidator

- (1) The liquidator may-
 - (a) retain attorneys-at-law, accountants, engineers, appraisers and other professional advisors;

- (2) Where a liquidator has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has in his possession or under his control or has concealed, withheld or misappropriated any property of the co-operative society, he may apply to the Court for an order requiring that person to appear before the Court at the time and place designated in the order and to be examined.
 - (3) Where the examination mentioned in subsection (2) discloses that a person has concealed, withheld or misappropriate property of the co-operative society, the court may order that person to restore the property or pay compensation to the liquidator on behalf of the co-operative society.
 - (4) A liquidator shall not purchase directly or indirectly any part of the stock-in-trade or assets of the co-operative society.

175. Limitation on liability of liquidator

- (1) A liquidator shall not be liable where he relies in good faith on-
 - (a) financial statements of the co-operative society represented to him-
 - (i) by an officer of the co-operative society; or
 - (ii) by the auditor of the co-operative society in a written report that states that the financial statements reflect fairly the financial condition of the co-operative society at a specified date; or
 - (b) an opinion or statement of an attorney-at-law, accountant, engineer, appraiser or other professional advisor retained by the liquidator.

176. Cost of liquidation

- (1) A liquidator shall pay the cost of the liquidation out of the property of the co-operative society and shall pay or make adequate provision for all claims against the co-operative society.
- (2) After the date specified by the liquidator for the receipt of notices of claims against the cooperative society under section 173(c)(iii), the liquidator may distribute all or any part of the assets of the co-operative society among the parties entitled to the assets having regard to the claims of which the liquidator has notice.
- (3) The liquidator shall not be liable for any part of the assets of the co-operative society distributed under subsection (2) to any person notice of whose claim was not received under section 173(c)(iii).

- (4) When distributing the assets of a co-operative society under this section, the liquidator shall pay, in priority to the claims of the creditors of the co-operative society, the wages or salaries of all persons, other than directors employed by the co-operative society at the time of the commencement of the liquidation.
- (5) Wages or salaries shall not exceed the equivalent of more than three months and any claim for an outstanding amount shall have the first priority against any residual asset of the co-operative society.

177. Closure of liquidation

- (1) In the liquidation of a co-operative society the funds, including the statutory reserves, shall be applied-
 - (a) firstly to the cost of liquidation;
 - (b) secondly to the discharge of the liabilities of the co-operative society;
 - (c) thirdly to the payment of share capital; and
 - (d) fourthly, where the bye-laws of the co-operative society permit, to the payment of a dividend at a rate not exceeding 10% per annum for any period during which no distribution of profits has been made.
- (2) Any surplus remaining after the application of the funds to the purposes specified in subsection (1) may, at the discretion of the Registrar, be used for any co-operative purpose the Registrar considers fit.
- (3) Where the liquidation is closed in accordance with subsection (1), the Registrar shall-
 - (a) issue directions with respect to the custody or disposal of the documents and records of the co-operative society; and
 - (b) discharge the liquidator.
- (4) Where the Registrar discharges a liquidator under subsection (3), the Registrar shall issue a certificate of dissolution in the prescribed manner.
- (5) The co-operative society shall cease to exist on the date shown in the certificate of dissolution.

178. Custody of records

- (1) A person who has been granted custody of the documents and records of a dissolved co-operative society remains liable to produce those documents and records for six years following the date of its dissolution or until the expiry of any other shorter period that the Registrar may specify.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) in the case of a credit union the documents and records shall be kept for seven years.

179. Remuneration of liquidator

- (1) Where there is no agreement or contract fixing the remuneration of a liquidator, the liquidator shall be entitled to a commission based on the net proceeds of the estate of the co-operative society realised after deducting his expenses and disbursements.
- (2) The amount of the commission mentioned in subsection (1) shall be equal to-

- (a) 5% on the first $1,000 realised;
 - (b) 2.5% on the next $4,000 realised; and
 - (c) 1.25% on any sum greater than $5,000 realised.
- (3) A liquidator is entitled to any fee or charge for his services in addition to the commission specified under this section.

180. Continuation of actions

- (1) Notwithstanding the dissolution of a co-operative society under this Act-
- (a) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding commenced by or against, the co-operative society, the Board or any Director before its dissolution may be continued as if the co-operative society had not been dissolved;
 - (b) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding may be brought against the co-operative society, the Board or any Director within two years after its dissolution as if the co-operative society had not been dissolved; and
 - (c) the residue of any property of the cooperative society held by the Registrar shall be used to satisfy any judgement or order in respect of action taken in relation to paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) Service of a document on a co-operative society after its dissolution may be effected by serving the document on all the persons shown on the records of the Registrar as the last directors of the co-operative society and the Registrar.
- (3) Notwithstanding the dissolution of a co-operative society, a person to whom any of its property has been distributed is liable to any person claiming under subsection (1) to the extent of the amount received by that person on the distribution with respect to any share of the co-operative society that that person held, and an action to enforce that liability may be brought within two years after the date of dissolution of the co-operative society.
- (4) On the payment of a distribution or distribution of property with respect to any share of a co-operative society the payee shall be notified that a trust in relation to a claim under subsection (1) exists for a period of two years in respect of the payment.

181. Unknown creditor of member

- (1) On the dissolution of a co-operative society, the liquidator shall convert into money the portion of the property distributable to a creditor or member who cannot be found after a reasonable investigation and shall deposit the money in a trust account in an interest bearing account at a reputable financial institution in Anguilla in the name of the Registrar.
- (2) A payment under subsection (1) shall be in satisfaction of a debt or claim of a creditor or member.
- (3) Where a creditor establishes within six years after the dissolution of a co-operative society that he is entitled to any money held under subsection (1) the Registrar shall pay the amount standing to the account to that person.
- (4) Where moneys deposited under this section are not distributed within six years after the dissolution of a co-operative society it shall be distributed in accordance with sections 177(2) or the bye-laws.

182. Power of Registrar to surcharge

- (1) Where, in the course of the dissolution of a co-operative society it appears that any-
 - (a) person who has taken part in the organisation or management; or
 - (b) any past or present officer, of the co-operative society has misapplied or retained or become liable or accountable for any money or property of the co-operative society or has committed misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the co-operative society, the Registrar may on his own volition or on the application of the liquidator, any creditor or contributor, carry out an examination into the conduct of that person.

- (2) The Registrar may make an order requiring the person to repay the money or the value of the property with interest at a rate as the Registrar may think just by way of compensation in regard to the misapplication, retainer, dishonesty or breach of trust as the Registrar may think just
- (2) This section shall apply notwithstanding that the act is one for which the offender may be criminally responsible.
- (4) This section in no way derogates from the right of the Registrar or a liquidator to move the courts for redress.

183. Appeal against surcharge

Any person aggrieved by an order of the Registrar made under section 182 may appeal to the Tribunal within twenty-one days from the date of the order and the decision of the Tribunal shall be final on any question of fact.

184. Application of Part XI

- (1) This Part does not apply to a co-operative society that is bankrupt within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Act RSA c. B15.
- (2) Where a co-operative society is at any time found, in proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act RSA c. B15 to be bankrupt within the meaning of that Act, any proceedings taken under this Part to dissolve or to liquidate and dissolve the co-operative society shall be stayed.

PART XII

EXAMINATIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS

185. Examinations

- (1) In addition to the powers of routine inspection under sections 4(4) and 21(1) the Registrar may appoint a person as examiner who shall make an examination of the records and the affairs of any co-operative society.
- (2) In its request for an examination and the appointment of an examiner under this section, the Registrar may set limits and conditions on the scope and conduct of the examination as the Registrar considers appropriate.

- (3) An examiner requested by the Registrar to carry out an examination under this section may, on production of the examiner's authorisation to any person concerned, at all reasonable times inspect and take copies of, or extracts from, any book or document relating to the co-operative society, and for any of those purposes may enter any premises at which the books or documents are kept.
- (4) For the purposes of exercising his powers under subsection (3) to take copies or extracts, an examiner may remove from the premises concerned, the original documents and return them no later than twenty four hours after the removal.
- (5) A signed record of all documents removed from the premises by an examiner shall be given to the person in charge of the premises before the examiner leaves the premises.
- (6) An examiner who is carrying out an examination under this section may, with the approval of the Registrar, and subject to any limits imposed by that approval, carry out a similar examination in accordance with subsections (3), (4) and (5) in relation to any other body, whether a co-operative society or not, which is or has been at any relevant time associated with the co-operative society.
- (7) Where an examination is carried out under this section, the examiner shall make a written report of the examination to the Registrar.
- (8) Where required to do so by notice in writing served by the Registrar at any time or by an examiner in the course of an examination-
 - (a) a co-operative society;
 - (b) any person who is or has been a director, member, agent or liquidator of a co-operative society; or
 - (c) any other person who has in his possession or power any book or document relating to a co-operative society, shall provide the Registrar or the examiner any book, document or information specified in the notice which relate to the co-operative society and is in his possession.

- (9) Where a person on whom a notice is served under subsection (8) does not have in his possession or under his control an item specified in the notice but knows where it is, the person shall not be regarded as complying with the notice unless he states to the best of his knowledge and belief where the item is and, if so required, make that statement in the form of a statutory declaration.
- (10) Where requested in writing by the Registrar or an examiner, a co-operative society shall provide to the Registrar or the examiner a financial statement or periodic financial statements in the specified form and containing the information requested in the notice.
- (9) Where a notice under subsection (8) or (9) requires that any -
 - (a) item or information is to be furnished within a period, at a time or place specified in the notice; or
 - (b) information is to be verified by a statutory declaration, the co-operative society or person on whom the notice is served shall not be regarded as complying with the notice unless that requirement is also complied with.

- (10) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both.

186 Duty to provide explanation

The Registrar or examiner may take copies of or extracts from any item produced in compliance with a notice under section 185 and if so required by the Registrar or examiner, the person on whom the notice was served or a person who is or has been a director, committee member, member, agent or liquidator of the co-operative society shall provide any explanation which may reasonably be required of an item so produced.

- (a) out of the funds of the co-operative society; or
- (b) by the directors or former directors of the co-operative society or any of them, and any sum payable shall be recoverable summarily by the Registrar as a civil debt.

189 Obstruction

- (1) A director, committee member, employee or agent of a co-operative society shall not obstruct-
- (a) any person who is carrying out an examination under this Act; or
 - (b) the examination of a co-operative society undertaken under this Act.
- (2) A director, committee member, employee or agent of a co-operative society who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.

190. Investigations

- (1) Where-
- (a) an application is made to the Registrar by the lesser of twenty-five members or ten per cent of the membership of a co-operative society, each of whom has been a member of the co-operative society throughout the period of twelve months ending on the date of the application; and

(b) the Registrar is of the opinion that it is necessary to do so in the interests of the orderly and proper regulation of the business of a co-operative society, the Registrar may appoint one or more investigators to investigate the affairs of the co-operative society.

(2) An application under subsection (1)(a) shall be supported by sworn evidence for the purpose of showing that the applicants have -

- (a) good reason for requiring the investigation to be made; and
- (b) not been actuated by malicious motives in their application, and where required by the Registrar the applicants shall deposit a sum of money as security for the costs.

(3) Where an investigator thinks it is necessary for the purpose of the investigation to also investigate the affairs or any other body, whether a co-operative society or not, which is or has at any relevant time been associated with the principal co-operative society, the investigator may do so with the approval of the Registrar.

(4) A notice of an application under subsection (1)(a) shall be given to the co-operative society concerned and, where applicable, to any other body whose affairs are to be investigated by virtue of subsection (3).

(5) Before appointing an investigator under this section, the Registrar shall notify the co-operative society in writing of the action which he proposes to take and of the grounds on which he relies for taking the proposed action.

(6) The notice given under subsection (5) shall inform the cooperative society that it may within fourteen days from the receipt of the notification submit to the Registrar a written statement showing cause why the investigation should not be pursued.

(6) The expenses of an investigation shall be defrayed by the office of the Registrar, but it shall be entitled to be repaid these expenses from—

- (a) the co-operative society to such extent as the Registrar may direct; and
- (c) any person convicted of an offence in proceedings instituted as a result of the investigation as the court by which the person is convicted may order.

- (5) The Minister may by regulations subject to affirmative resolution of the House of Assembly amend Part 2 of Schedule 2.

207. Case stated on question of law

The Registrar, anyone delegated by him under section 199 or a legal practitioner acting under section 200 may, in the course of or on making a decision in a dispute, refer a question of law arising therefrom to the High Court by way of case stated for the opinion of the Court.

208. Enforcement of decisions and recovery of loans

- (1) A decision by the Registrar, anyone delegated by him under section 199 or a legal practitioner acting under section 200 may, by leave of the Court, be enforced in like manner as a judgment or order of the Court, and where leave is given, judgment may be entered in terms of the decision.
- (2) Where a dispute relates to the recovery of a loan made by a co-operative society to a member of that co-operative society, such a dispute may, notwithstanding section 197, 199 or 200 be brought before the magistrate for the district in which the co-operative society conducts business.

- (3) A magistrate shall have jurisdiction under subsection (2), notwithstanding that the amount due exceeds the magistrate's jurisdiction under the Magistrates Code of Procedure Act RSA c M5.

PART XIV

SPECIALISED CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

Credit Unions

209. Functions of Registrar, immunity, sanctions and corrective action

- (1) The Registrar shall administer the system of regulation and supervision of credit unions registered under this Act for the-
- (a) protection by each credit union of the funds of its members; and
 - (b) maintenance of the financial stability and well-being of all registered credit unions.
- (2) The Registrar shall have power to do anything which, in his opinion, is necessary to facilitate the exercise of his functions or is incidental to or consequential on their exercise, and, in the exercise of those powers the Registrar may consult other persons with expertise or knowledge in matters relating to financial institutions including credit unions.
- (3) The registration of a credit union or the imposition of any prudential, supervisory or reporting requirement or condition thereon is not a warranty as to the solvency of the credit union to which registration is given,
- (4) The Registrar shall not be liable in respect of any loss incurred through the insolvency or default of a credit union.
- (5) Where after an examination under section 185 or after an investigation under section 190, or on the receipt of any other information the Registrar is of the opinion, that it is necessary to act in the interest of the orderly and proper regulation of the business of a credit union, in addition to the powers conferred by section 4, the Registrar may-
- (a) place the credit union under administrative supervision; and
 - (b) take any other necessary action to correct the non-compliance or unsafe or unsound practice, including
 - (i) prohibiting the disposal, conveying or encumbering of any of the credit union's assets;
 - (ii) prohibiting the incurring by the credit union of any debt, obligation or liability;
 - (iii) prohibiting the investing of any of the credit union's funds;
 - (iv) prohibiting the withdrawal of any of the credit union's accounts at other financial institutions;
 - (v) suspending the credit union's acquisition of fixed assets;
 - (vi) suspending or restricting the credit union's lending operations; and
 - (vii) increasing the credit union's allocation to reserves.
- (6) The credit union shall comply with the requirements of the Registrar under subsection (5)(b) and where the credit union fails to do so, the Registrar may appoint an administrator for the credit union, for a period not exceeding twelve months.
- (7) Where at any time the Registrar determines that the credit union is not able to continue business under the administrator, in the interest of the members, depositors and creditors and in accordance with section 155, the Registrar may appoint a receiver or a receiver-manager for the credit union.

- (8) All costs incidental to the period of administrative supervision will constitute an allowable charge against the assets of the credit union and shall be paid as the Registrar may determine.

210. Restrictions

- (1) A credit union shall not underwrite insurance or the issue of securities by another person.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prohibit a credit union from obtaining insurance for the security of the credit union.
- (3) A credit union shall not demand from a potential borrower that—
 - (a) any additional services, including appraisals, valuations or security, be obtained from a specific provider; or
 - (b) the borrower should utilise any other service of the credit union, as a condition of, or in consideration of obtaining a loan.
- (4) A credit union may only hold real property the aggregate market value of which does not exceed ten per cent of its total assets.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the Registrar may, where the Registrar is satisfied that the circumstances require it, grant approval to a credit union to hold real property in excess of the percentage specified in subsection (4).
- (6) Subsection (4) shall not apply where the credit union exercises its legal right in respect of any property which is the security for any debt, and in such a case, the property shall not be retained for a period in excess of five years without the permission of the Registrar unless in the meantime the aggregate value of the real property held by the credit union is reduced to below the percentage specified in subsection (4).
- (7) Nothing in subsection (4) shall be interpreted as requiring a credit union to—
 - (a) dispose of any real property that was acquired; or
 - (b) terminate any agreement to acquire or hold any real property where the agreement was entered into,before the coming into force of this Act.
- (8) A credit union may do any act which is incidental or conducive to or consequential upon the attainment of its objects.

211. Liquid assets

- (1) A credit union shall at all times keep a proportion of its total assets in liquid form as prescribed in Regulations to enable the credit union to meet its liabilities as they arise.
- (2) For the purpose of complying with subsection (1) a credit union shall ensure that no less than fifteen per cent or any greater percentage as may be specified by the Registrar, of its members' unencumbered deposits and other short term liabilities, are maintained in liquid assets.
- (3) A credit union may keep liquid assets in excess of the percentage of its liquid assets required for complying with subsection (1).

212. Loan loss provisions

- (1) A credit union shall at least annually evaluate the quality and collectability of the loan portfolio and establish adequate loan loss allowance.
- (2) The Registrar shall in accordance with the standards prescribed by PEARLS issue guidelines to implement the requirement for an adequate loan loss allowance.

213. Loan approval

- (1) A loan made by a credit union shall be approved in accordance with the policies established by the directors before any funds are advanced.
- (2) A loan to a director, officer, committee member or an employee of a credit union or an associate of any of them, shall be approved in the manner prescribed.
- (3) A person who knowingly approves or grants a loan by a credit union in contravention of this Act shall be held liable for any loss resulting to the credit union in connection with that loan.

214. Security for loans

- (1) Subject to any restrictions that may be prescribed in the Regulations, a credit union may take any security for loans and other risk assets that it considers advisable and in keeping with sound business and risk management practices.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, “risk assets” means loans, investments and other property of the co-operative society with possible loss results, which form the basis of determining the amount of the co-operative society’s income to be set aside as provision for loss.

215. Loan limits

The limits on the amount of loans made by a credit union shall be in accordance with section 120.

216. Reporting loans

- (1) Where a credit union is reporting loans, it shall report the loans at their fair value deducting provision for loan impairment on the balance sheet in its annual financial statements under section 129.
- (2) Any advance given by way of overdraft or line of credit is deemed to be a loan for the purposes of the balance sheet and shall be reported as a loan.

216. Interest on loans

- (1) The maximum intervals at which interest on loans made by a credit union are to be paid shall shall be prescribed in the Regulations.

- (2) The rate of interest to be charged on loans shall be fixed from time to time by the Board.
- (3) Where a borrower has not paid the interest on a loan within the maximum interval prescribed under subsection (1) the credit union shall not include that interest due as part of its income.

218. Acceptance of deposits

- (1) A credit union may accept deposits-
 - (a) from members;
 - (b) from other co-operative societies;
 - (d) from government and non-government agencies; and
 - (e) bodies corporate.
- (2) Deposits may be accepted in the manner and form and subject to any condition that may be prescribed in the Regulations.

219. Credit unions and trusts

- (1) A credit union is not bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, to which any deposit or share is subject.
- (2) Where any deposit or share is subject to a trust of which the credit union has notice, the receipt or order-
 - (a) of the trustee in whose name the deposit or share stands; or
 - (b) where the deposit or share stands in the names of two or more trustees, all those trustees or any of them who, under the document creating the trust, may be entitled to receive the deposit or share, is a sufficient discharge to the credit union for the payment of any money payable in respect of the deposit or share, and the credit union is not bound to see to the application of any money paid on the receipt or order.

- (3) Where due to any neglect or omission on the part of a credit union to enter a proper description in its books, an executor, an administrator, a guardian, a committee or a trustee who is entered on the books of the credit union as a member, or who is described as representing a named estate, trust or trust beneficiary shall not be personally liable to the credit union with respect to the share that he or she represents in that capacity.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (4) the estate or trust beneficiary represented by a person described in subsection (3) continues to be liable to the credit union in the same manner and to the same extent as if the testator, minor, ward, person of unsound mind, beneficial trust or their trust beneficiary were entered on the records of the credit union as the holder of the shares.

Consumers Co-operative societies and Housing Co-operative societies

- (2) Where a person's membership in a housing co-operative society is terminated and the member does not give up possession of the housing unit he occupies, the housing co-operative society may apply to the Court to recover possession, any arrears of housing charges and damages.

226. Abandoned goods

- (1) Where a member of a housing co-operative society—
 - (a) has his membership terminated, has vacated or abandoned the housing unit formerly occupied by him; and
 - (b) has left property in the housing unit, the co-operative society may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order authorising it to remove any property from the housing unit and sell or otherwise dispose of it.

- (2) The Magistrate may make an order under subsection (1) where the Magistrate is satisfied that the housing co-operative society has made a reasonable effort to locate the former member.

- (3) Where a housing co-operative society sells or otherwise disposes of property under an order made under subsection (2), it shall pay into the Magistrate's Court, to the credit of the former member, any remaining proceeds of the disposition after deducting—
 - (a) an amount with respect to costs incurred by it relating to the disposition; and
 - (b) any arrears of housing charges and damages that the Magistrate allows.
- (4) Where a former member does not claim the remaining proceeds after a sale or disposal within two years after the date the money was paid into the Magistrates Court, the money shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
- (5) Where a housing co-operative society sells or otherwise disposes of property under an order made under subsection 1 it is not liable in any action taken by the former member with respect to the removal, sale or disposition.

 - (a) to the Registrar, anyone delegated by him under section 199 or the legal practitioner appointed under section 200;
 - (b) where the appellant is not a co-operative society, to the co-operative society of which the appellant is a member; and
 - (c) where the appeal is against the decision of the Registrar, anyone delegated by him under section 199 or a legal practitioner appointed under section 200 to any other party to the dispute.
- (2) A person or co-operative society to whom a copy of the appellant's statement has been provided shall, within 14 days of the receipt of the statement, submit to the Chairperson of the Tribunal a written response to the statement.
- (3) A copy of any response received shall be sent by the Chairperson of the Tribunal to the appellant and to any other person interested in the appeal of whom he has notice.
- (4) The Chairperson shall send copies of all statements and responses to the other members of the Tribunal as soon as they are received.

3. Further particulars

- (1) On the application by any person interested in the appeal to whom a copy of the written statement of the appellant or of the response has been sent, or in any case where the Chairperson of the Tribunal considers it necessary to do so for the proper resolution of the appeal, the Chairperson may require the appellant or any other person to provide him with further particulars in writing within a specified time.
- (2) On receipt of further particulars under subsection (1) the Chairperson of the Tribunal shall provide copies to any other person interested in the appeal and the other members of the Tribunal.

4. Notice of hearing

The Chairperson of the Tribunal shall, in consultation with the other members of the Tribunal, fix a date and place for the hearing of the appeal and shall give 7 days' notice to the appellant, the Registrar and all other interested parties

5. Procedure at hearing

- (1) At a hearing before the Tribunal, the appellant, the Registrar and any other interested party shall be entitled to appear and to be heard and represented by an attorney-at-law.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) the Registrar may be represented by a member of the Registrar's staff.
- (3) The Tribunal may admit any duly authenticated written statement or other material as prima facie evidence of any fact or facts in any case in which it thinks it just and proper so to do.
- (4) The Tribunal may call for documents and examine witnesses as appear to it likely to afford evidence relevant and material to the enquiry.
- (4) The Tribunal may require any party to the enquiry or any witness in the proceedings to give evidence on oath and, for that purpose, the chairperson of the Tribunal shall have power to administer oaths.
- (5) Where after notice of a hearing has been given the appellant, Registrar or any other interested party fails to appear at the hearing, the Tribunal may proceed notwithstanding the absence or may give directions with a view to the determination of the appeal as the Tribunal thinks just and proper.
- (6) Proceedings of the Tribunal shall be held in public.

6. Decision of Tribunal

- (1) The decision on any matter of the majority of the Tribunal shall be the decision of the Tribunal, and the decision of the Tribunal shall be recorded in writing and signed by the Chairperson of the Tribunal, who may correct in any decision any clerical mistake or error arising from an accidental slip or omission.
- (2) A signed copy of the decision shall be sent by the Chairperson of the Tribunal to the appellant, the Registrar and any other interested party.
- (3) The Tribunal may, on the application of any interested party award costs in relation to an appeal.

7. General provision as to procedure

Save as otherwise expressly provided by this Act, the procedure at any hearing before the Tribunal shall be as determined by the Tribunal.

8. Proof of decisions of the Tribunal

The production in any proceedings in any court of a document purporting to be certified by the Chairman of the Tribunal and the secretary as a copy of a decision of the Tribunal shall, unless the contrary is proved, be evidence of the document and the facts stated therein.
